REGULATION OF FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD COVERING COMPUTATION BY MEMBER BANKS OF TOTAL DEPOSIT LIABILITIES ON WHICH ARE TO BE BASED SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR CLASS A STOCK OF FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION.

The term total deposit liabilities for purpose of determination by member banks of the amounts of subscriptions for Class A stock of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, under provisions of Section 12B (e) of the Federal Reserve Act, means the member bank's gross deposits as of the close of business on March 4, 1935, less items in process of collection: Provided, however, that any bank organized subsequent to March 4, 1935, shall compute the amount of its subscription for Class A stock of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation on the basis of such total deposit liabilities as of close of business on the date upon which it becomes a member bank. The term "gross deposits" (Items 15 to 19 inclusive in Comptroller of the Currency's form of report of condition for national banks used as of March 4, 1935, and items numbered 14 to 18 inclusive in Federal Reserve Board's form of report of condition for State member banks used as of same date) means the sum of United States Government and postal saving deposits, public funds of states, counties, school districts, or other subdivisions or municipalities, deposits of other banks, certified and cashier's checks outstanding, and cash letters of credit and traveler's checks outstanding, and all other demand and time deposits, including items credited to depositors' accounts subject to final payment but not including deposits payable only at an office located in a foreign country. The term "items in process of collection" means the sum of cash items with Federal Reserve banks in process of collection and exchanges for clearing house and other checks on local banks (Items 4 and 7 of schedule I in the form of report of condition used by member banks as of March 4, 1935) plus such part of amounts "due from banks" (Items 5 and 6 of the same schedule) as represents uncollected cash items.
