

Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis
Press Release (Official Announcement)

For immediate release December 21, 1955

Mr. G. Olin Hollocher, Assistant Vice President of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, having reached retirement age, will retire on January 1, 1956 after having completed over 39 years of service with the bank. During that time various functions of the bank have come under his supervision as Controller in 1928, Assistant Cashier in 1937, and Assistant Vice President in 1943, the position he now holds.

Mr. Paul Salzman has been appointed by the Board of Directors as an Assistant Vice President of the bank, effective January 1, 1956. Mr. Salzman joined the staff of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis in 1931, most of his time having been spent in the Audit and Accounting Departments. He has been Manager of the latter department since May 1952 and under his new appointment will retain supervision of that function. He is a graduate of the American Institute of Banking and of the Central States School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin.
