Dated February 20, recommending favorable action on the applications under the Clayton Act of Messrs. Keith, Ruth, and Roberts.

On motion, at 12:10 P. M. the Board took a recess, to meet in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury at 12:30 P. M.

At 12:40 P. M. the Board reassembled in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. McAdoo suggested the adoption of a change providing for a differential rediscount rate at Federal Reserve banks against paper secured by War Finance Corporation bonds, equal to  $\frac{1}{2}$  of 1%.

Mr. Miller suggested as a substitute that the Board be given power by a vote of five members to authorize the rediscount of the notes of the banks secured by obligations of the War Finance Corporation.

Mr. Warburg and Mr. Harding said they thought a majority vote was preferable to the majority of five, and Secretary McAdoo concurred with them.

Mr. Delano expressed himself as opposed to the  $\frac{1}{2}$  of 1% differential, although he was willing to vote for it.

On motion, it was voted to adopt the proposed amendment as modified in language by Mr. Harding to read as follows:

"such bonds subject to the approval of the Federal Reserve Board, and to such extent as the Federal Reserve Board may from time to time prescribe, may be bought, sold and dealt in by Federal Reserve banks in the same manner and to the same extent as bonds or notes of the United States not bearing the circulation privilege, and Federal Reserve banks may, subject to the regulations of the Federal Reserve Board, discount, or purchase with the indorsement of a member bank, notes secured by such bonds, and they may make advances upon promissory notes of member banks secured by such bonds, in the same manner and to the same extent as they may make advances upon, discount, or purchase with the indorsement of a member bank, notes secured by bonds or other obligations of the United States under authority of the Federal Reserve Act or any amendments thereof; provided, however, that the rate of discount at which promissory notes or member bank paper secured by bonds of the corporation, may be acquired by Federal Reserve banks, shall not be less than one-half of one percentum above the rate established for commercial paper of a like maturity by the Federal Reserve Bank acquiring such paper."

At 1:10 p. m. the meeting adjourned.

APPROVED:

Chairman

Secretary.
