Report of the Bulletin Committee dated March 13th, recommending that the publication of the Federal Reserve Bulletin be continued on a monthly basis.

Noted.

On motion duly seconded, the following resolution upon the resignation of Mr. Albert Strauss as a member of the Federal Reserve Board was unanimously adopted, and a copy ordered transmitted to Mr. Strauss:

"The Federal Reserve Board desires to put on record this expression of its sincere regret at the resignation of Mr. Albert Strauss, Vice Governor of the Board, and also to express its appreciation of the efficient and faithful service of Mr. Strauss as a member and official of the Board, as well as of those high personal qualities which have made his relation to his colleagues one of mutual confidence and regard.

"Coming to Washington in the year 1917, Mr. Strauss served for more than a year as a member of the War Trade Board and as a financial expert in matters relating to foreign exchange transactions. Taking office as a member and Vice-Governor of the Federal Reserve Board in October, 1918, Mr. Strauss devoted his energies and abilities unreservedly to the work of the Board, and his services and counsel were of the greatest value, especially in matters relating to international affairs, in which he is a recognized authority. His resignation from the Board is a serious loss to the Federal Reserve System and is keenly regretted by his colleagues, whose warm regard and best wishes will follow him in whatever field of activity he may engage."
