dum from General Counsel regarding the services of Mr. C. S. Bradley now holding that position and recommending that Mr. Bradley's salary be reduced to $1800, to take effect July 1, 1924.

Mr. Hamlin moved approval of the recommendation of the Law Committee.

Mr. Miller moved as a substitute for Mr. Hamlin's motion, that the Board approve the original recommendation of the Committee on Salaries and Expenditures that the position of Secretary to General Counsel be abolished on June 30, 1924.

Mr. Miller's substitute motion being put by the chair was carried, the members voting as follows:

Thereupon, the Governor requested action with regard to the application for the establishment at Wichita, Kansas, of a branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City which was renewed at the hearing on December 18th.

Mr. Hamlin moved that the application for a branch Federal Reserve Bank at Wichita be approved with the understanding that all expense of maintenance of such a branch should be borne by the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City.

Mr. Hamlin's motion being put by the chair was lost, Mr. Hamlin voting "aye" and Governor Crissinger not voting.

The matter of advising the applicants for this branch of the Board's action was referred to the Governor with power.
Mr. Hamlin made the following statement:

"The state of Kansas is a large state and Wichita is a financial center. In my opinion the prime reason for the Federal Reserve Act was the decentralization of credits and banking power. It is evident that Wichita is losing deposits even to Oklahoma City, not to speak of Kansas City. Personally, I would not worry if every Federal Reserve bank became a central holding bank and all business was done by branches, if such a necessity arose. You will remember that Mr. Warburg, at the time the Federal Reserve Act was written was inclined toward the establishment of about seven Federal Reserve banks with, I think, about sixty branches."

Mr. Cunningham stated that he was not in favor of granting the application in view of the fact, according to Governor Bailey's statements, that the service can not be improved except for about fourteen banks, and that the idea that branches should be established in certain other states is liable to gain ground; stating that he was not prepared to say that branches should be established in every state regardless of the service that can be rendered.

Mr. James stated that about the only advantage to be gained by the establishment of the branch would be the opportunity given banks in the city of Wichita to adjust their reserves.

Thereupon, the election of directors of branch Federal Reserve banks was considered, and the following appointments were made:

- Pittsburgh: Charles D. Armstrong and James D. Callery
- Cincinnati: Judson Harmon and John Osmake
- Baltimore: Howard Bruce and William H. Matthai
- New Orleans: P. H. Saunders, A. P. Bush, and F. W. Poote
- Birmingham: W. H. Kettig and Oscar Wells
- Nashville: W. H. Hartfart and Paul M. Davis
- Jacksonville: J. C. Cooper and Fulton Saussy
- Little Rock: C. S. McCain and Moorhead Wright
- Memphis: S. H. Ragland and T. K. Riddick
- Helena: L. M. Ford and Thomas Marlow
- Denver: Harbo MacKenzie and John Evans
- Omaha: Carl Gray and J. E. Miller
The matter of election of directors for the Buffalo branch was passed over pending report by the Committee on District #2.

The matter on election of directors for the Detroit branch was passed over pending report by Mr. Dawes, Chairman of Committee on District #7.

The matter of election of directors for the Louisville branch was passed over pending report by Mr. James as to the possibility of arranging with the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis to appoint Mr. E. L. Swearingen, at present a Board appointee, thus leaving Mr. George W. Norton, a business man, formerly appointed by the bank, free for appointment by the Board.

Memorandum dated December 19th, from General Counsel on the subject, "Right of Board to Examine War Finance Departments of Federal Reserve banks" this opinion being based upon the request of the Managing Director of the War Finance Corporation, to have the Board's Division of Examination undertake the auditing of War Finance Corporation activities, operated and located in some of the Federal Reserve banks.

Upon motion, the question of the advisability of undertaking this work was referred to the Law Committee, and Mr. Cunningham was requested to consult with the Committee in the matter.
Memorandum dated December 15th, from Counsel with regard to the legality of a trustee of a mutual savings bank serving as Class "B" director of a Federal Reserve bank; this opinion referring to the fact that Mr. T. F. Whitmarsh recently elected a Class "B" director of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York is trustee of the Greenwich Savings Bank of New York City.

Mr. Hamlin stated that Governor Strong had advised him that Mr. Whitmarsh is to withdraw from the Greenwich Savings Bank and, upon motion by Mr. Hamlin, Counsel's opinion was ordered filed without action by the Board.
