Memorandum from the Fiscal Agent dated December 20th, recommending that the Board levy against the Federal Reserve banks an assessment of eight hundred and twenty-two ten thousandths of one percent (.000822) of the total paid-in capital stock and surplus of the Federal Reserve banks as of the close of business December 31, 1927, to meet the estimated expenses of the Board during the first half of the year 1928.
"WHEREAS, under Section 10 of the act approved December 23, 1913, and known as the Federal Reserve Act, the Federal Reserve Board is empowered to levy semi-annually upon the Federal reserve banks in proportion to their capital stock and surplus an assessment sufficient to pay its estimated expenses, including the salaries of its members, assistants, attorneys, experts and employees for the half-year succeeding the levying of such assessment, together with any deficit carried forward from the preceding half-year; and

WHEREAS, it appears from estimates submitted and considered that it is necessary that a fund equal to eight hundred twenty-two ten thousandths of one per cent of the total paid-in capital stock and surplus of the Federal reserve banks be created for the purpose hereinbefore described, exclusive of the cost of engraving and printing of Federal reserve notes; Now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That pursuant to the authority vested in it by law, the Federal Reserve Board hereby levies an assessment upon the several Federal reserve banks of an amount equal to eight hundred twenty-two ten thousandths of one per cent of the total paid-in capital and surplus of such banks as of December 31, 1927, and the Fiscal Agent of the Board is hereby authorized to collect from said banks such assessment and execute, in the name of the Board, receipts for payments made. Such assessments will be collected in two installments of one-half each; the first installment to be paid on January 1, 1928, and the second half on March 1, 1928."

Draft of reply prepared by the Secretary to letter dated October 21st from the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, requesting an expression of the Board's views as to the advisability of eliminating from the new Federal Reserve notes (reduced size) the legend setting forth the rights of the holder and in lieu thereof making reference to the provisions of the law where said rights are fully set forth, and also the advisability of eliminating the letter from the "seal" of the issuing bank, in order that the District number may stand out more prominently in the seal which will have to be reduced in size; the proposed reply stating that there appears to be no practical reason to object to the proposals and that the Board's Counsel has advised that there is no objection from a legal standpoint.

Upon motion, the proposed reply was approved.
