Memorandum dated July 10, 1950, from Mr. Millard, Director of the Division of Examinations, recommending an increase in the basic salary of J. Calvin Smith, an assistant Federal Reserve examiner in that Division, from $3,100 to $3,225 per annum, effective July 23, 1950.

Letter to Mr. Earhart, Chairman, Presidents' Conference Committee on Miscellaneous Operations, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, reading as follows:

"Thank you for your letter of June 19 with respect to the personnel of the various subcommittees serving under the Committee on Miscellaneous Operations.

In response to your inquiry about associate membership on the Subcommittee on Cash, Leased Wire, and Sundry Operations, the Board will be pleased to be so represented, and, accordingly, has designated Mr. Lowell Myrick, Assistant Director, Division of Bank Operations, as associate of that committee. If the committee should ever have occasion to consider major questions regarding the leased wire system, we would hope that Mr. Bethea, formerly associate of the Committee on Leased Wire, might participate in such discussions.

In view of developments in the field of electronics and how they might affect the operations of the Board as well as of the Banks, the Board would like also to designate Mr. Myrick as associate of the Subcommittee on Electronics, if that would be agreeable to the Committee on Miscellaneous Operations."
