Letter from Senator Douglas. There had been distributed to the members of the Board copies of a letter addressed to Chairman Martin under date of October 30, 1959, by Senator Douglas, Chairman of the Joint Economic Committee, transmitting a copy of a statement made before the Committee on Wednesday, October 28, by Professor Robert Triffin of Yale University, along with a transcript of the day's hearing. Senator Douglas pointed out that Mr. Triffin had suggested a revision of the International Monetary Fund, or the creation of a new organization to replace the present one, and said that in the Committee's judgment the plan, if successful, might help to solve problems of the United States and other countries in maintaining liquidity reserves required in international financial transactions. While the Committee was not prepared at this time to endorse Mr. Triffin's recommendations, it believed his suggestion was of such outstanding merit and originality as to deserve the most serious and extensive study on the part of responsible officials. Mr. Triffin's statement and the transcript therefore were forwarded to the Board for consideration, with an indication that the Committee hoped it might receive the Board's comments.

Governor Balderston reported having been advised by Under Secretary of the Treasury Baird that the Treasury had received a similar communication and was inclined not to make a substantive reply at this time.

At the Board's request, Mr. Marget then discussed Mr. Triffin's plan, which he described as an extremely complicated proposal. Briefly, however, it would involve a procedure by which all monetary reserves eventually would be transmitted to the International Monetary Fund by the countries holding them, with the understanding that the Fund would give the respective countries a gold guarantee. In return, the respective countries would undertake not to withdraw their deposits with the Fund. In view of the complexity of the proposal and the issues involved, Mr. Marget expressed the view that it would be advisable to avoid substantive comments on the plan. Should such comments be necessary, he felt that it might be desirable to attempt a coordination of views, perhaps by referral of the matter to the staff of the National Advisory Council on International Monetary and Financial Problems.

Following additional discussion with regard to the implications of Mr. Triffin's proposal, there was agreement on the part of the Board members that it would seem undesirable to make a detailed reply to the Joint Economic Committee at this time. Within the scope of that general point of view, however, there were several suggestions as to the manner in which a reply might most appropriately be worded. On the basis of these suggestions and a rough draft of reply read by Mr. Marget, it was understood that alternative drafts of a letter to Senator Douglas would be distributed for review prior to consideration at another meeting of the Board.

The meeting then adjourned.
Secretary's Notes: Pursuant to the recommendation contained in a memorandum dated November 3, 1959, from Mr. Marget, Director, Division of International Finance, Governor Shepardson today noted on behalf of the Board the approval of an application for retirement filed by Rosa Ernst, Economist in that Division, to be effective December 1, 1959.

Pursuant to the recommendation contained in a memorandum from the Secretary of the Board, Governor Shepardson also approved today on behalf of the Board the acceptance of the resignation of Henry B. Hummel, Administrative Assistant in the Office of the Secretary, effective November 20, 1959.
