Money market review. There were distributed tables relating to Treasury advance refundings during the period June 1960 to March 1963;
Preliminary results of the March 1963 advance refunding; changes in maturity structure of the publicly-held marketable debt as a result of the March 1963 advance refunding; and monetary developments during the five-week period ending March 6, 1963.

Mr. Yager reported on recent developments in the Government securities market, with emphasis on the Treasury advance refunding. Mr. Holland then discussed bank reserves, the money supply, and related matters, after which Mr. Gemmill reported on foreign exchange market developments.

Governor Mitchell joined the meeting at this point. All members of the staff withdrew except Messrs. Sherman, Kenyon, Fauver, and Mattras and the following entered the room: Mr. Hackley, General Counsel; Mr. Solomon, Director, Division of Examinations; and Mr. O'Connell, Assistant General Counsel.

Discount rates. The establishment without change by the Federal Reserve Banks of New York, Philadelphia, Atlanta, and San Francisco on March 7, 1963, of the rates on discounts and advances in their existing schedules was approved unanimously, with the understanding that appropriate advice would be sent to those Banks.

Items circulated or distributed to the Board. The following items, copies of which are attached to these minutes under the respective item numbers indicated, were approved unanimously:
Letter to Riceville State Bank, Riceville, Iowa, interposing no objection to its acting in specific fiduciary capacities.

Letter to the Federal Reserve Agent at Chicago granting an extension of time within which to issue a general permit to The Marine Corporation to vote its stock of Marine National Bank of Waukesha.

Reward offer by Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. Mr. Sherman informed the Board that the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston was considering an extension of the reward offer it initially made in September 1962 in connection with the holdup of a United States mail truck in Plymouth, Massachusetts. He recalled that the Board had noted the reward offer without objection when it was originally under consideration in September 1962, and that the offer was due to expire March 24, 1963. The Reserve Bank, after consultation with the Post Office Department, now proposed to have the reward offer remain in effect indefinitely, but subject to revocation by the Bank at any time.

After discussion, the Board noted without objection the extension of the reward offer.

The meeting then adjourned.

AIR MAIL

Mr. Robert P. Briggs,
Federal Reserve Agent,
Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago,
Chicago 90, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Briggs:

This refers to the letter from Mr. Leland Ross, Vice President of your Bank, dated February 25, 1963, which, among other things, suggested that the period within which the voting permit may be issued to Marine Corporation, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to vote the stock it owns or controls of Marine National Bank of Waukesha, Waukesha, Wisconsin, be extended to, and including, April 22, 1963.

It is the Board's opinion that the time extension suggested is reasonable. Accordingly, the Board has extended the time for issuance of the general voting permit to, and including, April 22, 1963.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Merritt Sherman
