

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK

(Closed)
[Circular No. 285]
[June 1, 1920]

Supplementing circular 277.

Result of Special Election of a Class B Director

To all Member Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District:

As a result of the special election, Richard H. Williams has been elected a Class B Director of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, to fill the unexpired term ending December 31, 1920.

The total number of votes cast was 110, all of which were for Mr. Williams.

Very truly yours,

PIERRE JAY,
Chairman