Offering of $250,000,000 (or thereabouts)

United States of America Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness
Dated and bearing interest from January 15, 1921

Series E—1921, $5\frac{1}{2}$ Per Cent. Due April 15, 1921

Series F—1921, $5\frac{3}{4}$ Per Cent. Due October 15, 1921

To all Banks, Trust Companies, Savings Banks, Bankers, Investment Dealers and Principal Corporations in the Second Federal Reserve District:

The Secretary of the Treasury, under the authority of the act approved September 24, 1917, as amended, offers for subscription, at par and accrued interest, through the Federal Reserve Banks, Treasury certificates of indebtedness, in two series, both dated and bearing interest from January 15, 1921, the certificates of Series E—1921 being payable on April 15, 1921 with interest at the rate of five and one-half per cent. per annum and the certificates of Series F—1921 being payable on October 15, 1921 with interest at the rate of five and three-quarters per cent. per annum.

Applications will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks.

Bearer certificates will be issued in denominations of $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. The certificates of Series E—1921 will have one interest coupon attached, payable April 15, 1921, and the certificates of Series F—1921, two interest coupons attached one for semi-annual interest payable July 15, 1921 and the other payable October 15, 1921.

The certificates of said series shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds and certificates authorized by said act approved September 24, 1917, and amendments thereto, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above.

The certificates of these series do not bear the circulation privilege and will not be accepted in payment of taxes.

The right is reserved to reject any subscription and to allot less than the amount of certificates of either or both series applied for and to close the subscriptions as to either or both series at any time without notice. Payment at par and accrued interest for certificates allotted must be made on or before January 15, 1921, or on later allotment. After allotment and upon payment Federal Reserve Banks may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive certificates. Any qualified depository will be permitted to make payment by credit for certificates allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of its district. Treasury certificates of indebtedness of Series B—1921, maturing January 15, 1921, will be accepted at par, with an adjustment of accrued interest, in payment for any certificates of the Series E—1921 or F—1921 now offered which shall be subscribed for and allotted.

As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions and to make allotment in full in the order of the receipt of applications up to amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective districts.

Yours very truly,

J. H. CASE,

Acting Governor.

New York, January 10, 1921.

The attention of subscribers is directed to the conditions described in the last paragraph of this circular.
