

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

Check Department

[Circular No. 536, March 12, 1923]
Reference to Circular 515

Collection of Checks

Drawn on The First National Bank of Englishtown, N. J.

To all Member Banks and Nonmember Clearing Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District:

We have been advised that The First National Bank of Englishtown, New Jersey, which was closed on November 29, 1922, will reopen for business on March 14, 1923. We will, therefore, accept checks drawn on that bank for collection as cash items on and after March 14, 1923.

Very truly yours,

BENJ. STRONG,
Governor
