

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

Check Department

[ Circular No. 619, July 24, 1924 ]
Reference to Circular 515 ]

Collection of Checks

Drawn on The First National Bank of Bellmore, N. Y.

To all Member Banks and Nonmember Clearing Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District:

We have been advised that The First National Bank of Bellmore, New York, which was closed on May 8, 1924, will reopen for business on July 24, 1924. We will, therefore, accept checks drawn on that bank for collection as cash items on and after July 24, 1924.

Very truly yours,

BENJ. STRONG,

Governor
