

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 796]
July 1, 1927]

Check Department

COLLECTION OF CHECKS

Drawn on San Antonio and Other Texas Banks

To all Member Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District:

The San Antonio Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas will be opened for business on Tuesday, July 5, 1927.

Subject to the provisions of check collection circular No. 728 of this bank, the proceeds of checks sent to this bank or its Buffalo Branch for collection, drawn on banks in the City of San Antonio will become available four days after receipt instead of eight days as heretofore. The proceeds of checks drawn on other banks in Texas will become available, as usual, in the time periods set forth in the time schedules of this bank and its Buffalo Branch dated March 1, 1927 showing when the proceeds of items will become available.

The territory in Texas assigned to the San Antonio Branch embraces the counties shown below.
