

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 806, September 28, 1927]

Official Signatures
Change in Authority to Sign

COPY FOR FEDERAL RESERVE BANK LIBRARY.

Circular No. 777 of March 28, 1927, containing facsimile signatures of those authorized to sign on behalf of this bank as modified by circular No. 785 of May 19, 1927, is further modified in the following respect:

WILLIAM H. DILLISTIN, vice-president of the Peoples Bank & Trust Company of Passaic and formerly an Assistant Federal Reserve Agent of this bank, has been reappointed an Assistant Federal Reserve Agent effective October 1, 1927, and will sign in that capacity as follows:

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "W. H. Dillistin". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

Assistant Federal Reserve Agent.

Very truly yours,

BENJ. STRONG,
Governor.
