

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 835]
[March 3, 1928]

Official Signatures
Changes in Authority to Sign

Miss Marguerite D. Burnett,
Reports Department.

Dear Madam:

Circular No. 830 dated January 11, 1928, containing facsimile signatures of those authorized to sign on behalf of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, is modified in the following respects:

ELMER L. THEOBALD, formerly Assistant Cashier of the Buffalo Branch, resigned as of February 15, 1928 to accept the position of Assistant Vice President of the Liberty Bank of Buffalo, N. Y., and his authority to sign on behalf of or to act for the Federal Reserve Bank of New York expired accordingly.

R. B. WILTSE, formerly a Federal Reserve Examiner, has been appointed Assistant Manager of the Buffalo Branch effective February 25, 1928.

R. B. WILTSE,
Assistant Manager, will sign:

Per Procuration

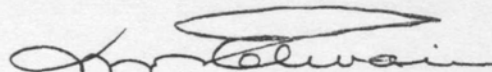

The authority heretofore granted WILLIAM H. CONOVER and CLARENCE B. GEORGEN to sign for the bank as holders of procuration has been revoked.

The following are authorized to sign per procuration, but will not sign correspondence:

ROLAND H. BEHRENS will sign:

DAVID McELWAIN will sign:

Very truly yours,

BENJ. STRONG,
Governor.
