They will be 91-day bills; and will be sold on a discount basis to the highest bidders. Tenders will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks, or the branches thereof, up to two o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard time, on Monday, February 19, 1934. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington.

The Treasury bills will be dated February 21, 1934, and will mature on May 23, 1934, and on the maturity date the face amount will be payable without interest. They will be issued in bearer form only, and in amounts or denominations of $1,000, $10,000, $100,000, $500,000, and $1,000,000 (maturity value).

It is urged that tenders be made on the printed forms and forwarded in the special envelopes which will be supplied by the Federal Reserve Banks or branches upon application therefor.

Tenders will be accepted without cash deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied by a deposit of 10 per cent of the face amount of Treasury bills applied for, unless the tenders are accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

Immediately after the closing hour for receipt of tenders on February 19, 1934, all tenders received at the Federal Reserve Banks or branches thereof up to the closing hour will be opened and public announcement of the acceptable prices will follow as soon as possible thereafter, probably on the following morning. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to reject any or all tenders or parts of tenders, and to allot less than the amount applied for, and his action in any such respect shall be final. Those submitting tenders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection thereof. Payment at the price offered for Treasury bills allotted must be made at the Federal Reserve Banks in cash or other immediately available funds on February 21, 1934.

The Treasury bills will be exempt, as to principal and interest, and any gain from the sale or other disposition thereof will also be exempt, from all taxation, except estate and inheritance taxes. No loss from the sale or other disposition of the Treasury bills shall be allowed as a deduction, or otherwise recognized, for the purposes of any tax now or hereafter imposed by the United States or any of its possessions.

At the request of the Secret Service Division of the Treasury Department, New York District, we are forwarding to all member banks in the Second Federal Reserve District the following information which we have received from the Secret Service Division describing new counterfeit notes which have recently appeared in circulation in the New York District:

$1 SILVER CERTIFICATE:

1928 B Series; Check Letter 'C'; Face Plate No. 145; Back Plate No. 1743; signatures of W. O. WOODS and OGDEN L. MILLS; Washington portrait. Printed on one sheet of paper from photo-etched plates with a few red and blue ink lines impressed on the surface to simulate the fiber in the genuine. This is a fairly deceptive note. However, the numbering is out of line, the enclosing letters being slightly larger than the numerals.

Face plate printed lightly and the back executed in green with smudgy effect.

NEW COUNTERFEIT

To Member Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District and others concerned:

At the request of the Secret Service Division of the Treasury Department, New York District, we are forwarding to all member banks in the Second Federal Reserve District the following information which we have received from the Secret Service Division describing a new counterfeit note which has recently appeared in circulation in the New York District:

$10 FEDERAL RESERVE NOTE:

On the FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK, N. Y.; Series of 1928 B; Check Letter 'L'; Face Plate No. 67; Back Plate indistinct, appears to be 114; Serial No. of specimen at hand B63812071A; signatures of W. O. WOODS and A. W. MELLON; portrait of HAMILTON.

This counterfeit is printed on one sheet of bond paper heavier than the genuine, from photo-etched plates of fair workmanship. Both front and back plates are approximately one-fourth of an inch shorter than the genuine. The color tone is darker than the genuine, particularly on the back, and the Treasury seal and serial numbering is executed unevenly in a grass-green shade.

The Treasury Department, Secret Service Division, has requested that banks and others to whom counterfeit Government obligations may be presented endeavor when practicable to obtain information regarding their source and history. Any information of this kind should be forwarded to the Treasury Department, Secret Service Division, Customs House, New York, N. Y.
