STATEMENT BY SECRETARY MORGENTHAU

The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that tenders are invited for Treasury bills to the amount of $50,000,000, or thereabouts. They will be 91-day bills; and will be sold on a discount basis to the highest bidders. Tenders will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks, or the branches thereof, up to two o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard time, on Monday, December 27, 1937. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington.

The Treasury bills will be dated December 29, 1937, and will mature on March 30, 1938, and on the maturity date the face amount will be payable without interest. They will be issued in bearer form only, and in amounts or denominations of $1,000, $10,000, $100,000, $500,000, and $1,000,000 (maturity value).

It is urged that tenders be made on the printed forms and forwarded in the special envelopes which will be supplied by the Federal Reserve Banks or branches upon application therefor.

No tender for an amount less than $1,000 will be considered. Each tender must be in multiples of $1,000. The price offered must be expressed on the basis of 100, with not more than three decimal places, e. g., 99.125. Fractions must not be used.

Tenders will be accepted without cash deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied by a deposit of 10 per cent of the face amount of Treasury bills applied for, unless the tenders are accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

Immediately after the closing hour for receipt of tenders on December 27, 1937, all tenders received at the Federal Reserve Banks or branches thereof up to the closing hour will be opened and public announcement of the acceptable prices will follow as soon as possible thereafter, probably on the following morning. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to reject any or all tenders or parts of tenders, and to allot less than the amount applied for, and his action in any such respect shall be final. Those submitting tenders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection thereof. Payment at the price offered for Treasury bills allotted must be made at the Federal Reserve Banks in cash or other immediately available funds on December 29, 1937.

The Treasury bills will be exempt, as to principal and interest, and any gain from the sale or other disposition thereof will also be exempt, from all taxation, except estate and inheritance taxes. (Attention is invited to Treasury Decision 4550, ruling that Treasury bills are not exempt from the gift tax.) No loss from the sale or other disposition of the Treasury bills shall be allowed as a deduction, or otherwise recognized, for the purposes of any tax now or hereafter imposed by the United States or any of its possessions.

Treasury Department Circular No. 418, as amended, and this notice prescribe the terms of the Treasury bills and govern the conditions of their issue. Copies of the circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or branch thereof.

In accordance with the above announcement tenders will be received at the Securities Department of this bank (2nd floor, 33 Liberty Street, New York City) or at the Buffalo Branch of this bank (272 Main Street, Buffalo, New York) until two o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard time, on Monday, December 27, 1937.

It is requested that tenders be submitted on special form and in special envelope enclosed herewith.

Attention is invited to the fact that payment for the Treasury bills cannot be made by credit through the War Loan Deposit Account. Payment must be made in cash or other immediately available funds.

GEORGE L. HARRISON,
President.

CONFIDENTIAL WARNING

To Member Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District and others concerned:

At the request of the Treasury Department, United States Secret Service, New York, N. Y., we are sending to all member banks in the Second Federal Reserve District and others concerned the following description of a new and dangerous counterfeit $10 Federal Reserve note:

NEW AND DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT $10 FEDERAL RESERVE NOTE:

On the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, N. Y.; Series of 1934; with Check Letter "I", Face Plate No. 81 (printed in very small type in lower right corner of face of note; Back Plate No. 308 (in lower right corner of back); bearing facsimile signatures of W. A. Julian, Treasurer of the United States, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury; portrait of Hamilton.

The face of Hamilton presents a gray appearance due to absence of delicate shading which exists in the genuine, and the face has a worried expression. In the background of the portrait is an unusually light portion immediately behind Hamilton's coat collar.

IMPORTANT: A COMPARISON OF THIS COUNTERFEIT WITH A $10 FEDERAL RESERVE NOTE KNOWN TO BE GENUINE WILL INDICATE THAT THE DARK SHADING WHICH APPEARS ON THE GENUINE IMMEDIATELY UNDER THE NUMBERS "1" AND "0" IN THE LARGE NUMERALS "10" IN THE UPPER CORNERS OF THE FACE OF THE NOTE, CANNOT BE SEEN IN THE COUNTERFEIT.

An attempt may be made by colored or white persons to pass one of these notes. The person should be detained under pretext, if possible, while a police officer is summoned. IN ANY EVENT, SECURE A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF THE PASSER AND TRY TO OBTAIN THE LICENSE NUMBER OF ANY CAR HE MAY ENTER. Then telephone IMMEDIATELY to the nearest office of the United States Secret Service.

The Treasury Department has requested that any counterfeits which come to the attention of banks or others be forwarded with all available information to the office of the United States Secret Service having jurisdiction in their territory. Offices of the Secret Service are located in Albany, Buffalo, Syracuse and New York City, New York, and in Newark, New Jersey.

George L. Harrison,
President.
