To all Incorporated Banks and Trust Companies in the Second Federal Reserve District and Others Concerned:

Following is the text of a notice today made public by the Treasury Department with respect to a new offering of Treasury bills payable at maturity without interest to be sold on a discount basis to the highest bidders.

The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that tenders are invited for Treasury bills to the amount of $100,000,000, or thereabouts. They will be 91-day bills; and will be sold on a discount basis to the highest bidders. Tenders will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks, or the branches thereof, up to two o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard time, on Friday, February 10, 1939. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington.

The Treasury bills will be dated February 15, 1939, and will mature on May 17, 1939, and on the maturity date the face amount will be payable without interest. They will be issued in bearer form only, and in amounts or denominations of $1,000, $10,000, $100,000, $500,000, and $1,000,000 (maturity value).

It is urged that tenders be made on the printed forms and forwarded in the special envelopes which will be supplied by the Federal Reserve Banks or branches upon application therefor.

No tender for an amount less than $1,000 will be considered. Each tender must be in multiples of $1,000. The price offered must be expressed on the basis of 100, with not more than three decimal places, e. g., 99.125. Fractions must not be used.

Tenders will be accepted without cash deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied by a deposit of 10 per cent of the face amount of Treasury bills applied for, unless the tenders are accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

Immediately after the closing hour for receipt of tenders on February 10, 1939, all tenders received at the Federal Reserve Banks or branches thereof up to the closing hour will be opened and public announcement of the acceptable prices will follow as soon as possible thereafter, probably on the following morning. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to reject any or all tenders or parts of tenders, and to allot less than the amount applied for, and his action in any such respect shall be final. Those submitting tenders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection thereof. Payment at the price offered for Treasury bills allotted must be made at the Federal Reserve Banks in cash or other immediately available funds on February 15, 1939.

The Treasury bills will be exempt, as to principal and interest, and any gain from the sale or other disposition thereof will also be exempt, from all taxation, except estate and inheritance taxes. (Attention is invited to Treasury Decision 4550, ruling that Treasury bills are not exempt from the gift tax.) No loss from the sale or other disposition of the Treasury bills shall be allowed as a deduction, or otherwise recognized, for the purposes of any tax now or hereafter imposed by the United States or any of its possessions.

Treasury Department Circular No. 418, as amended, and this notice prescribe the terms of the Treasury bills and govern the conditions of their issue. Copies of the circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or branch thereof.

NEW AND DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT

To Member Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District and Others Concerned:

In a letter dated February 14, 1939, the Treasury Department, Secret Service Division, refers to a certain new and dangerous counterfeit as follows:

$10 FEDERAL RESERVE NOTE

On the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, New York; Series of 1934; check letter "D"; face plate No. 81; back plate No. 23; serial No. B45176890A; W. A. Julian, Treasurer of the United States; Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury.

This is a new issue of the counterfeit described in Secret Service warning notice dated August 23, 1938 and bears the same back plate number (23). Passers of this new note are also distributing the former issue bearing back plate No. 4 as well as back plate No. 23. General defects in this new production are fully described in the original warning notice, study of which is recommended for the reason that the check letter and face and back plate numbers may be changed again at any time.

Inasmuch as this is an extremely dangerous counterfeit, you are requested to notify money handlers to exercise extreme care in accepting notes of this variety and denomination.

The description of the counterfeit contained in Secret Service warning notice dated August 23, 1938, is set forth in our mimeographed letter dated August 26, 1938 (g4).

The Treasury Department has requested that any counterfeits which come to the attention of banks or others be forwarded with all available information to the office of the United States Secret Service having jurisdiction in their territory. Offices of the Secret Service are located in Buffalo, New York City, and Utica, N. Y.; and in Newark, N. J.

George L. Harrison,
President.
