FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK
Fiscal Agent of the United States

[Circular No. 2252]
August 1, 1941

OFFERING OF TWO SERIES OF UNITED STATES TREASURY NOTES

Tax Series A-1943

Tax Series B-1943

Dated August 1, 1941

Due August 1, 1943

Issued at Par and Accrued Interest

Acceptable at Par and Accrued Interest in Payment of Federal Income Taxes

To all Banking Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Second Federal Reserve District:

At the request of the Treasury Department, this bank transmits to you herewith a copy of Treasury Department Circular No. 667, setting forth the terms of the offering of Treasury Notes of Tax Series A-1943 and Treasury Notes of Tax Series B-1943, together with a copy of a pamphlet issued by the Treasury Department entitled "United States Treasury Tax Savings Plan" and a supply of application forms.

The principal operations may be summarized as follows:

Issuing Agents

Notes of both series will be issued by the Federal Reserve Banks only, but banking institutions generally may receive applications for notes of both series from their customers and forward such applications to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

Application Forms

Applications for notes of each series should be made on separate blanks which have been prepared for this purpose in pad form. One pad of each of the application forms is enclosed for the use of banking institutions (Form GB-353 for Tax Series A and Form GB-354 for Tax Series B). Instructions for filling out such applications will be found on the inside covers of such pads. A pad of Form G.B. 355 "Requisition for Forms" is also enclosed for use in requisitioning additional forms.

Purchase Prices

The notes of both series will be sold at par during August 1941, and at par and accrued interest during each subsequent month while they remain on sale, the purchase price advancing each month in the amount of one month's interest. A table showing the purchase price for notes of each series issued in August, September, October, November and December, 1941, will be found on page 5 of Treasury Department Circular No. 667 and on the inside covers of the application form pads.

Each application must be accompanied by payment in full; and it should be noted that the month in which payment (that is, immediately available funds) is received by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York will determine the issue date and the purchase price of the notes applied for. Consequently, if payment in form other than cash, Federal funds, or advice of credit to War Loan Deposit Account is received by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York near the end of one month and is not collected until the next succeeding month, the purchase price for such notes will be that indicated for such next succeeding month.

Form of Payment

Any form of exchange, including personal checks, will be accepted subject to collection, and should be drawn to the order of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York or the Treasurer of the United States. Any depositary, qualified pursuant to the provisions of Treasury Department Circular No. 92 (revised February 23, 1932, as supplemented) may make payment by advice of credit to the War Loan Deposit Account for notes applied for on behalf of itself or its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits. In the latter case Form GB 352 should be attached to the application form covered by such payment and adequate collateral should be provided in the usual manner. A pad of Form G.B. 355 "Requisition for Forms" is enclosed for use in requisitioning such forms.

Presentation in Payment of Federal Income Taxes

After three months from the date of purchase (as shown by the issue date on each note), but not before January 1, 1942, notes of both series may be presented in payment of Federal income taxes as outlined in section IV of Treasury Department Circular No. 667.

Taxation

Income derived from the notes shall be subject to all Federal taxes, now or hereafter imposed. The notes shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

Cash Redemption

A note of either series, if not presented in payment of taxes, will be (1) paid at maturity or (2) redeemed prior to maturity, at the owner's option and request, as provided in section V of Treasury Department Circular No. 667. Such payment or redemption will be made only by the Federal Reserve Bank that issued the note, and will be made only at the price paid for such note, that is, at par and accrued interest (if any) paid at the time of purchase. In other words, interest accrues on notes of both series after their purchase only in case they are presented in payment of Federal income taxes.

Before any note will be accepted for redemption or payment the "request for payment" form on the reverse side of such note must be completed in accordance with the instructions thereon.

Notes of Tax Series A-1943 may be redeemed at any time before maturity without advance notice, but notes of Tax Series B-1943 will be redeemed before maturity only after 60 days from the issue date and on 30 days' advance notice to the issuing Federal Reserve Bank. The timely surrender of a note of Series B, bearing a properly executed request for payment, will be accepted as constituting such advance notice.

Notes of either series may also be presented to the issuing Federal Reserve Bank for denominational exchange to lower, but not to higher, denominations, or for partial cash redemption in amounts corresponding to an authorized denomination. In the event of a partial cash redemption a new note with the same date of issue as the note surrendered will be issued in the face amount of the unredeemed portion of the old note. The "request for payment" form on the reverse side of each note presented for partial redemption or denominational exchange should be completed in accordance with the instructions thereon and an appropriate request for such redemption or exchange should be added thereto.

Payment of any note, or part thereof, either at maturity or on redemption prior to maturity will be made by check drawn to the order of the owner and mailed to the address given in the request for payment.

This bank will be pleased to undertake to answer any inquiries relative to the new series of Treasury tax notes. Additional copies of this circular, Treasury Circular No. 667 and the enclosed pamphlet will be furnished upon request.

Bureau of the Public Debt

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, July 22, 1941.

I. OFFERING OF NOTES

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, offers for sale, to the people of the United States, through the Federal Reserve Banks, at par and accrued interest, two issues of nontransferable notes of the United States, designated Treasury Notes of Tax Series A-1943, and Treasury Notes of Tax Series B-1943. As hereinafter provided, the notes of both series will be acceptable at par and accrued interest in payment of Federal income taxes: Provided, however, that not exceeding $1,200 principal amount of notes of Tax Series A-1943, and the accrued interest thereon, will be accepted from any one owner in any period of twelve consecutive months in payment of taxes due from such owner. If not presented in payment of taxes, the notes will be redeemable at the purchase price as hereinafter provided.

2. Descriptions of the notes of both series, and their terms are hereinafter fully set forth. The notes will be placed on sale beginning August 1, 1941, and the sale will continue until December 31, 1941, unless earlier terminated, as to either or both series, by the Secretary of the Treasury.

II. DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

1. General.—The notes of both series will be dated August 1, 1941, and will mature August 1, 1943. The owner's name and address, and the date of issue will be entered on each note at the time of its issue by a Federal Reserve Bank. The month in which payment is received by a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch, or by the Treasurer of the United States, will determine the purchase price and issue date of each note. The notes may not be transferred. No hypothecation of the notes on any account will be recognized by the Treasury Department, and they will not be accepted to secure deposits of public money. Except as herein provided, the notes will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing bonds and notes of the United States.

2. Denominations and interest.—The notes of Tax Series A-1943 will be issued in denominations of $25, $50, and $100, and interest thereon will accrue during each month after August 1941, in the amount of 16 cents on each $100 principal amount, that is, 4 cents on each $25, 8 cents on each $50, and 16 cents on each $100 denomination of note. The notes of Tax Series B-1943 will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $10,000 and $100,000, and interest thereon will accrue each month after August 1941, in the amount of 4 cents on each $100 principal amount, that is 4 cents on each $100, 20 cents on each $500, 40 cents on each $1,000, $4 on each $10,000, and $40 on each $100,000 denomination of note. In no case, however, shall interest accrue beyond the month in which the note is presented in payment of taxes, or beyond its maturity. Exchanges of authorized denominations of each series from higher to lower, but not from lower to higher, may be arranged at the Federal Reserve Bank of issue.

3. Purchase price, and tax-payment value.—The notes of both series will be sold at par during August 1941, and will be sold at par and accrued interest during each subsequent month while they remain on sale, the purchase price for a note of any denomination of either series advancing each month after August 1941, in the amount of one month's interest on that note. Tables, showing for each month from August 1941, to August 1943, for each denomination of each series, the principal amount of the notes with accrued interest added, are appended to this circular. The total shown for any denomination for any month—August through December 1941—while the notes remain on sale, is the purchase price, or cost, of the note during that month. Also, the total shown for any denomination for any month thereafter is the tax-payment value, or the amount at which the note will be acceptable during that month in payment of Federal income taxes as herein provided.

4. Acceptability in payment of taxes.—The notes of both series (but not more than $1,200 principal amount of notes of Tax Series A-1943 from any one owner in any period of twelve consecutive months) will be acceptable, at par and accrued interest, in payment of Federal income taxes (current and back personal and corporation taxes, and excess-profits taxes). The conditions of presentation, surrender and acceptance of the notes in payment of such taxes are set forth in Section IV of this circular.

5. Payment or redemption for cash.—The notes of either series may not be called by the Secretary of the Treasury for redemption prior to maturity. If such notes are not presented in payment of taxes: (1) they will be payable at maturity, or (2) they will be redeemable prior to maturity, at the owner's option and request, as hereinafter provided in Section V and in either case payment will be made only at the price paid for the notes.

6. Taxation.—Income derived from the notes shall be subject to all Federal taxes, now or hereafter imposed. The notes shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

III. PURCHASE OF NOTES

1. Applications and payment.—Applications will be received by the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches, and by the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Banking institutions generally may submit applications for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasurer of the United States are authorized to act as official agencies. Every application must be accompanied by payment in full, at par and accrued interest to the month in which payment is received by a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch, or the Treasurer of the United States. Any form of exchange, including personal checks, will be accepted subject to collection, and should be drawn to the order of the Federal Reserve Bank or of the Treasurer of the United States, as the case may be. Any depository, qualified pursuant to the provisions of Treasury Department Circular No. 92 (revised February 23, 1932, as supplemented) will be permitted to make payment by credit for notes applied for on behalf of itself or its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits.

2. Reservations.—The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any application in whole or in part, and to refuse to issue or permit to be issued hereunder any notes in any case or in any class or classes of cases if he deems such action to be in the public interest, and his action in any such respect shall be final. If an application is rejected, in whole or in part, any payment received therefor will be refunded. The Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, may designate agencies other than those herein provided for the sale of, or for the handling of applications for, Treasury notes to be issued hereunder.

3. Delivery of notes.—Upon acceptance of full-paid applications, notes will be duly issued and, unless delivered in person, will be delivered by registered mail within the Continental United States, the Territories and Insular Possessions of the United States, the Canal Zone and the Philippine Islands. No deliveries elsewhere will be made.

4. Form of application.—In applying for notes under this circular, care should be exercised to specify whether those of Tax Series A-1943, or Tax Series B-1943 are desired, and there must be furnished the name and address of the individual, corporation or other entity in which the notes are to be issued; and if address for the delivery of the notes is different, appropriate instructions should be given. The name should be in the same form as that used in the Federal income tax return of the purchaser. The use of an official application form is desirable, but not necessary. Appropriate forms may be obtained on application to any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch, and banking institutions generally will supply such forms.

IV. PRESENTATION IN PAYMENT OF TAXES

1. After three months from month of purchase (as shown by the date of issue on each note), but not before January 1, 1942, during such time, and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe, notes issued hereunder in the name of a taxpayer (individual, corporation, or other entity) may be presented and surrendered by such taxpayer, his agent, or his estate, to the Collector of Internal Revenue, to whom the tax return is made, and will be receivable by the Collector at par and accrued interest from August 1941, to the month, inclusive (but no accrual beyond August 1943), in which presented in payment of any Federal income taxes (current and back personal and corporation taxes, and excess-profit taxes) assessed against the original purchaser or his estate, but not more than $1,200 principal amount of notes of Tax Series A-1943, and the accrued interest thereon, may be accepted by the Collector in any period of twelve consecutive months in payment of Federal income taxes due from such owner. The notes must be forwarded to the Collector at the risk and expense of the owner, and, for his protection, should be forwarded by registered mail, if not presented in person.

V. CASH REDEMPTION AT OR PRIOR TO MATURITY

1. General.—Any Treasury note of Tax Series A-1943 or Tax Series B-1943 will be redeemed for cash at the purchase price at or before maturity. Notes of Tax Series A-1943 may be redeemed before maturity without advance notice, but notes of Tax Series B-1943 may be redeemed before maturity only after 60 days from date of issue and on 30 days' advance notice. The timely surrender of a note of Tax Series B-1943, bearing a properly executed request for payment, will be accepted as constituting the advance notice required hereunder.

2. Execution of request for payment.—The owner in whose name the note is inscribed must appear before one of the officers authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury to witness and certify requests for payment, establish his identity, and in the presence of such officer sign the request for payment appearing on the back of the note, adding the address to which check is to be mailed. After the request for payment has been so signed, the witnessing officer should complete and sign the certificate provided for his use.

3. Officers authorized to witness and certify requests for payment.—Any officers authorized to witness and certify requests for payment of United States Savings Bonds, as set forth in Treasury Department Circular No. 530, Fourth Revision, as amended, are hereby authorized to witness and certify requests for cash redemption of Treasury notes issued under this circular. Such officers include United States postmasters, certain other post office officials, and the executive officers of all banks and trust companies incorporated in the United States or its organized territories, including officers at branches thereof who are certified to the Treasury Department as executive officers.

4. Presentation and surrender.—Notes bearing properly executed requests for payment must be presented and surrendered to the Federal Reserve Bank of issue, at the expense and risk of the owner. For the owner's protection, notes should be forwarded by registered mail, if not presented in person.

5. Disability or death.—In case of the disability or death of the owner, and the notes are not to be presented in payment of Federal income taxes due from his estate, instructions should be obtained from the Federal Reserve Bank of issue before the request for payment is executed, or the notes presented.

6. Partial redemption.—Partial cash redemption of notes of either series, corresponding to an authorized denomination, may be made in the same manner, appropriate changes being made in the request for payment. In case of partial redemption of a note, the remainder will be reissued with the same date of issue as the note surrendered.

7. Payment.—Payment of any note, either at maturity or on redemption before maturity, will be made only by the Federal Reserve Bank that issued the note, and will be made by check drawn to the order of the owner, and mailed to the address given in his request for payment. In any case, payment will be made at the purchase price of the note, that is, at par and accrued interest (if any) paid at the time of purchase.

VI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Federal Reserve Banks, as fiscal agents of the United States, are authorized to perform such services or acts as may be appropriate and necessary under the provisions of this circular, and under any instructions given by the Secretary of the Treasury.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time or from time to time supplement or amend the terms of this circular, or of any amendments or supplements thereto, and may at any time or from time to time prescribe amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering of the notes, information as to which will promptly be furnished to the Federal Reserve Banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.
