

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 2318
November 19, 1941]

TREASURY LEAFLET "TAX SAVINGS PLAN"

To All Banks and Trust Companies, other than Savings Banks, in the Second Federal Reserve District:

The Treasury Department has prepared a new leaflet entitled "Tax Savings Plan" covering Tax Savings Notes, Series A and Series B. Distribution of the leaflet to the public is not now contemplated but at the suggestion of the Treasury Department, a limited supply of the leaflets is enclosed for the use of the officers of your bank and for display on counters, if you so desire.

Should you have need of additional copies of the leaflet for such purposes, we shall appreciate your returning the enclosed card after having indicated thereon the number of copies you desire.

ALLAN SPROUL,
President.

To Federal Reserve Bank of New York,
Federal Reserve Station, P. O.,
New York, N. Y.

Please send us.....copies of the leaflet prepared by the Treasury Department, entitled "Tax Savings Plan", referred in your Circular No. 2318.

(Name of Banking Institution)

(Address)