*To all Banking Institutions, and Others Concerned,

The following press statement was today made public:

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau today announced the plan for refinancing the outstanding Series G 1942-44 bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, called for redemption on July 1, 1942, and the Series S notes of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, maturing July 1, 1942. Holders of these securities may exchange them on a par for par basis, with an adjustment of accrued interest to June 5, 1942, for 1½ percent Treasury Notes of Series B-1946.

The Treasury notes now offered will be dated June 5, 1942, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1½ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on December 15, 1942 and thereafter on June 15 and December 15 in each year until they mature on December 15, 1946. They will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity. They will be issued only in bearer form with interest coupons attached, in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Public Debt Act of 1941, interest upon the notes now offered shall not have any exemption, as such, under Federal tax Acts now or hereafter enacted. The full provisions relating to taxability are set forth in the official circular released today.

Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches, and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Subscriptions must be accompanied by a like face amount of Home Owners' Loan Corporation bonds of Series G 1942-44, or of Reconstruction Finance Corporation notes of Series S. Coupon bonds should have July 1, 1942 and all subsequent coupons attached. Registered bonds should be assigned to the Secretary of the Treasury for exchange as provided in the official circular. The Series S notes should have final coupon due July 1, 1942 attached. Following acceptance of the securities, accrued interest from January 1 to June 5, 1942, about $9.63 per $1,000 in the case of Series G bonds, and $4.28 per $1,000 in the case of Series S notes, will be paid to the owners of the securities surrendered.

The right is reserved to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice. Subject to the reservations set forth in the official circular, all subscriptions will be allotted in full.

There are now outstanding $875,438,625 of the Series G bonds and $275,868,000 of the Series S notes.

The terms of this offering are set forth in Treasury Department Circular No. 686, dated May 25, 1942, copy of which is printed on the following pages.

The subscription books are now open, and applications will be received by this bank as fiscal agent of the United States. Subscriptions should be made on official subscription blanks and mailed immediately or, if filed by telegram or letter, should be confirmed immediately by mail on the blanks provided.

I. OFFERING OF NOTES

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par, from the people of the United States for notes of the United States, designated 1½ percent Treasury Notes of Series B-1946, in payment of which only Home Owners' Loan Corporation 2¼ percent bonds, Series G 1942-44, called for redemption on July 1, 1942, or Reconstruction Finance Corporation 1 percent notes of Series S, maturing July 1, 1942, may be tendered. The amount of the offering under this circular will be limited to the amount of such Series G bonds and Series S notes tendered and accepted.

II. DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

1. The notes will be dated June 5, 1942, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1½ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on December 15, 1942, and thereafter on June 15 and December 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature December 15, 1946, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the notes shall be subject to all Federal taxes, now or hereafter imposed. The notes shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The notes will be accepted at par during such time and under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed or approved by the Secretary of the Treasury in payment of income and profits taxes payable at the maturity of the notes.

4. The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, but will not bear the circulation privilege.

5. Bearer notes with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000. The notes will not be issued in registered form.

6. The notes will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States notes.

Banking institutions generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of notes applied for, and to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail insured may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve Banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents.
