

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 2548]
[November 20, 1942]

USE OF WAR LOAN DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS TO FACILITATE WAR FINANCING

To All Incorporated Banks and Trust Companies in the Second Federal Reserve District:

The Secretary of the Treasury has announced a war financing campaign of unprecedented size starting November 30, 1942. Primary emphasis is placed upon sales of Government securities to the general public and the Victory Fund Committee has organized a large staff of volunteer salesmen to solicit subscriptions from individuals and non-banking institutions of all types. However, securities appropriate for subscriptions by banks, for their own account, are also included in the offerings.

The current financing will cover war expenditures for two months, and Secretary Morgenthau, in his preliminary announcement of this program, indicated that it may lead to bimonthly instead of monthly financing operations hereafter. Such financing operations must of necessity be on a substantially larger scale than heretofore and make it important that the banks give further consideration to the best method of making payments for the large amounts of securities that will be purchased by them and their depositors.

During the first World War there was developed the so-called War Loan Deposit Account procedure by means of which banks are permitted to make payment for Government securities purchased, not only for themselves but for their customers as well, by a deposit to the credit of the Government on their own books. These deposits are subsequently withdrawn by the Treasury, in instalments, as needed to meet Government expenditures. As the withdrawals are closely synchronized with the actual disbursement of the money, this method is designed to prevent, so far as is possible, the dislocation of funds which would otherwise occur. If all banks were to make immediate remittances in full payment for their own and their customers' subscriptions to Government securities on the date of issue, a very large volume of funds would be withdrawn from use, and a considerable time would elapse before all of these funds would be returned to the banks through Government disbursements.

During recent years when most banks have had large excess reserves there has been less occasion to use the War Loan Deposit method of making payment for Government securities, and as a result there are now considerably fewer banks maintaining War Loan Deposit Accounts than was formerly the case. Now that war expenditures and the volume of Government financing are attaining such magnitude, it becomes important for all banks to consider carefully whether it would not be to their interest to qualify as Government depositaries, and thus to be in a position to make payment (either in full or in part) for Government securities, for which they and their customers subscribe, by means of credits to War Loan Deposit Accounts, rather than by immediate remittance.

Government funds in these accounts are left in the banks until they are needed, and then withdrawn by the Treasury in instalments. They are almost immediately returned to the banking system in the form of private deposits through Government disbursements, so that there is little change in aggregate deposits as a result of these transactions. There is, of course, bound to be some shifting in the distribution of funds, since the disbursal of Government funds does not penetrate to all communities and banks in exact proportion to the purchase of Government securities, nor with equal promptness, but effects on the reserve positions of the banks are reduced to a minimum by the use of this method.

Any incorporated bank or trust company in this District not presently qualified as a special depository of public moneys may apply for qualification as such depository by submitting to us an application on Form H-5 accompanied by a certified copy of a resolution of its board of directors on Form J-5 (copies of these forms, and of Treasury Circular No. 92 referred to below, are enclosed). In fixing the maximum amount of deposits for which it will apply, the applicant should be guided by the amount of the payments which it expects to make, for itself and others, in respect of Government securities which may be paid for by credit to the War Loan Deposit Account, and should also be guided by any statutory limitations upon the amount of deposits which it is permitted to receive from any one depositor. Upon approval of the application, the depository will open and maintain a separate account for such deposits, in our name as fiscal agent of the United States, known as the War Loan Deposit Account and will pledge with us, as collateral for such deposits, securities of the character and in the amount required by Treasury Circular No. 92.

Any special depository now or hereafter qualified which wishes to increase its maximum qualification in order to make greater use of its account, may submit its application for such increase on Form H-5 accompanied by a certified copy of resolution on Form J-5. The Treasury has recently authorized increases in the maximum qualification of a depository, in appropriate cases, to more than 100% of its capital and surplus and has provided that any of the securities referred to in Treasury Circular No. 92 are eligible as collateral for the full amount of deposits including any amount in excess of 100% of the capital and surplus of the depository.*

We recommend, therefore, in the light of the prospective increased amount of war financing and in order to minimize the effect of purchases of Government securities upon the reserve position of banks and trust companies, that any incorporated bank or trust company not presently qualified apply for designation as a special depository of public moneys, and that all depositories now qualified make effective use of their War Loan Deposit Accounts. Applications for designation as special depositories and applications for increase of maximum qualification of presently qualified depositories will be given prompt attention.

ALLAN SPROUL,
President.

*The previous requirement, set forth in our Circular No. 2478, dated August 12, 1942, that deposits in a War Loan Deposit Account in excess of 100% of the capital and surplus of the depository must be secured by Government securities of equal face value, has been rescinded.

APPLICATION FOR DEPOSITS

To the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, fiscal agent of the United States:

SPECIAL DEPOSITS OF PUBLIC MONEYS UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED SEPTEMBER 24, 1917, AS AMENDED

1932
Department Circular No. 92¹
(Revised)

Accounts and Deposits

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, February 23, 1932.

To Federal Reserve Banks and other banks and trust companies incorporated under the laws of the United States or of any State:

Department Circular No. 92, dated October 1, 1928, as amended, is revised to read as follows:

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Any incorporated bank or trust company in the United States desiring to participate in deposits of public moneys, as authorized by the act of Congress approved September 24, 1917, as amended, should make application to the Federal Reserve Bank of its district.

Application for deposit of public moneys under said act must be in Form H-5, hereto attached, and must be accompanied by a certified copy of a resolution, duly adopted by the board of directors of the applicant, in Form J-5, hereto attached.

Depositaries already qualified to a sufficient amount pursuant to Department Circular No. 92, dated October 1, 1928, as amended, will not be required to file new formal applications or resolutions, but if they desire to receive or retain deposits after March 7, 1932, must so notify the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which they are located; and they will, by the acceptance or retention of deposits after March 7, 1932, be conclusively presumed to have assented to all the terms and provisions hereof, and to the retention of collateral security theretofore pledged as collateral security hereunder.

Depositaries heretofore designated, which have been wholly inactive for a period of 2 years preceding the date of this circular, will be discontinued, and, in the future, the designation of all such depositaries which have not applied for deposits for a period of 2 years will be automatically canceled. Depositaries so discontinued may be redesignated at any time, upon full compliance with the terms of this circular and upon recommendation of the Federal Reserve Banks. Depositaries, heretofore or hereafter designated, which, having subscribed to an offering of United States bonds, notes, or certificates of indebtedness, and having in due course received an allotment on their subscription, refuse to receive the said allotment and make payment therefor may be discontinued.² Depositaries so discontinued may be redesignated upon full compliance with the terms of this circular, upon recommendation of the Federal Reserve Bank of their district, and upon the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

In fixing the maximum amount of deposits for which it will apply, the applicant bank or trust company should be guided by the amount of the payments which it expects to make, for itself and others, on account of bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness of the United States issued under authority of said Act, and income taxes, as the case may be, and, as well, by any statutory limitations upon the amount of deposits which the applicant bank or trust company may receive from any one depositor.³

Any application may be rejected or the applicant may be designated for a smaller maximum amount than that applied for. After receiving the recommendations of the Federal Reserve Banks, the Secretary of the Treasury will designate approved depositaries.

COLLATERAL SECURITY

Designated depositaries will be required before receiving deposits to qualify by pledging as collateral security for such deposits, including interest thereon, securities of any of the following classes, to an amount, taken at the rates and conforming to the conditions provided below, at least equal to such deposits:

1. United States Government Securities.—Bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, and Treasury bills of the United States Government of any issue, including interim certificates or receipts for payment therefor; all at face value.⁴

2. Federal Farm Loan, insular, and territorial government securities.—Bonds and debentures issued under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, bonds of Porto Rico, bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the Philippine Islands, and bonds of the Territory of Hawaii; all at market value, not to exceed face value.⁵

3. State bonds.—Bonds of any State of the United States; at market value, not to exceed face value.

4. State notes, certificates of indebtedness and warrants.—Approved notes, certificates of indebtedness, and warrants issued by any State of the United States; at 90 percent of market value, not to exceed face value.

5. Municipal securities.—Approved bonds of any county, city, or political subdivision in the United States; and approved notes, certificates of indebtedness, and warrants with a fixed maturity issued by any county or city in the United States, which are direct obligations of the county or city as a whole, or which are payable from general taxes levied on all taxable property in such county or city; all at 90 percent of market value, not to exceed face value; provided, that the obligations tendered are issued by a county, city, or political subdivision in the United States which has obligations classified in one of the three highest grades by a recognized investment-service organization regularly engaged in the business of rating or grading bonds.

6. Railroad, public utility, and industrial securities.—Approved bonds, listed on a recognized stock exchange, and notes, of domestic railroad companies within the United States; approved equipment trust obligations of such domestic railroad companies; and approved bonds and notes of domestic electric railway and traction companies, telephone and telegraph companies, electric-light, power, and gas companies, and industrial companies, secured (directly or by the pledge of mortgage bonds) by mortgage upon physical properties in the United States and listed on a recognized stock exchange; all at 75 percent of market value, not to exceed face value; provided, that all such bonds, notes, and obligations are classified in one of the four highest grades by a recognized investment service organization regularly engaged in the business of rating or grading bonds.

7. National credit corporation gold notes.—Gold notes of the National Credit Corporation; at 90 percent of face value.

8. Commercial paper and bankers' acceptances.—Commercial paper and bankers' acceptances having maturity at the time of pledge of not to exceed 6 months, exclusive of days of grace, and which are otherwise eligible for rediscount or purchase by Federal Reserve Banks, and which have been approved by the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which the depository is located; at 90 percent of face value. All such commercial paper and acceptances must bear the indorsement of the depository bank or trust company.

9. Customers' notes, drafts, and bills of exchange.—Customers' notes, drafts, and bills of exchange indorsed by a correspondent incorporated bank or trust company and rediscounted by the depository bank or trust company, when approved by the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which the depository is located; at 75 percent of face value. All such notes, drafts, and bills of exchange must bear the indorsement of the depository bank or trust company.

10. Notes and bills payable of a correspondent incorporated bank or trust company.—Notes and bills payable of a correspondent incorporated bank or trust company secured by customers' notes, drafts, or bills of exchange, or by other collateral eligible under this circular, to at least an equal amount, when approved by the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which the depository is located; at 75 percent of face value. All such notes and bills payable must bear the indorsement of the depository bank or trust company.⁶

No security shall be valued at more than face value. No municipal bond, obligation, or evidence of indebtedness, shall be accepted unless the municipality has been in existence for a period of 10 years. No State or municipal bond, obligation, or evidence of indebtedness shall

⁴ By supplement dated April 27, 1938, paragraph 1-A is added and reads as follows:
"OBLIGATIONS GUARANTEED BY THE UNITED STATES.—Obligations fully and unconditionally guaranteed both as to principal and interest by the United States; all at face value."

⁵ By supplement dated July 24, 1933, paragraph 2 amended to read as follows:
"FEDERAL FARM LOAN, INSULAR, AND TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.—Bonds and debentures issued under the Federal Loan Act, as amended (other than bonds of the Federal Land Banks as specified in paragraph 11), bonds of Puerto Rico, bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the Philippine Islands, and bonds of the Territory of Hawaii; all at market value, not to exceed face value."

⁶ By supplement dated July 24, 1933, paragraph 11 is added and by supplement dated March 11, 1940, amended to read as follows:
"11. FEDERAL LAND BANK BONDS, OBLIGATIONS OF THE FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANKS, OBLIGATIONS OF THE FEDERAL NATIONAL MORTGAGE ASSOCIATION, AND OBLIGATIONS OF PUBLIC HOUSING AGENCIES.—Bonds of the Federal Land Banks, obligations of the Federal Home Loan Banks, obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association, and obligations of Public Housing Agencies (as defined in the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended) when secured to the full amount thereof by a Requisition Agreement with the United States Housing Authority; all at face value."

be accepted if the state or municipality has made default in payment of principal or interest during the past 10 years.

The right is reserved to call for additional collateral security at any time.

The approval and valuation of securities is committed to the several Federal Reserve Banks, acting under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. The withdrawal of securities, the pledge of additional securities, and the substitution of securities shall be made from time to time as required or permitted by the Federal Reserve Banks, acting under like direction.

CUSTODY OF SECURITIES

All securities accepted as collateral security for deposits hereunder must be deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank or branch of the district in which the depository is located, as fiscal agent of the United States.

HOW DEPOSITS ARE TO BE MADE

Each qualified depository will be required to open and maintain or continue for the account of the Federal Reserve Bank of its district, as fiscal agent of the United States, a separate account for deposits to be made hereunder, to be known as the "War Loan Deposit Account."

Qualified depositories, if and to the extent from time to time hereafter authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury, may be permitted to make payment by credit, when due, of amounts payable on subscriptions made by or through them for bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness of the United States issued under authority of said Act.⁷ In order to make payment by credit, the depository must, on or before the date when such payment is due, notify the Federal Reserve Bank of the district of such intention and issue a certificate of advice to such Federal Reserve Bank, stating that a sum specified has been deposited with such depository for the account of such Federal Reserve Bank, as fiscal agent of the United States, in the War Loan Deposit Account. Such certificate of advice must be substantially in Form K-2, hereto attached.

Payment of income taxes cannot be made by credit. Out of the unexpended cash proceeds, if any, arising from the payment of income taxes, deposits may be made through the Federal Reserve Banks, under direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, with qualified depositories throughout the United States, as may be hereafter announced by the Secretary of the Treasury.

All deposits and withdrawals will be made by the Federal Reserve Banks by direction of the Secretary of the Treasury.

The amount deposited with any depository shall not in the aggregate exceed at any one time (a) the maximum amount for which it shall have been designated as a depository, nor (b) the aggregate amount of the collateral security pledged by it taken at the rates hereinbefore provided.

WITHDRAWAL OF DEPOSITS

All deposits will be payable on demand without previous notice. Calls for withdrawals of deposits with special depositories will be made through the Federal Reserve Banks, and depositories will be required to arrange for payments of such calls in funds that will be immediately available on the payment due date.

INTEREST ON DEPOSITS

Each depository will be required to pay interest at the rate of one-half of one percent per annum on daily balances.⁸

The right is reserved to amend or supplement or revise the provisions of this circular at any time or from time to time.

OGDEN L. MILLS,
Secretary of the Treasury.

⁷ By supplement dated January 30, 1934, provision is made for payment by credit through "War Loan Deposit Accounts" for accepted tenders of Treasury bills in specific cases where the Treasury offering authorizes payment in this manner.

GENERAL NOTES

(Revised as of Cumulative Supplement No. 1 to Revision IV)

- (1) The Proclaimed List is divided into two parts: part I relates to listings in the American republics; part II relates to listings outside the American republics.
- (2) In part I titles are listed in their letter-address form, word for word as written in that form, with the following exceptions:

If the title includes a full personal name, that is, a given name or initial and surname, the title is listed under the surname.

Personal-name prefixes such as de, la, von, etc., are considered as part of the surname and are the basis for listing.

The listing is made under the next word of the title when the initial word or phrase, or abbreviation thereof, is one of the following Spanish forms or similar equivalent forms in any other language:

Compañía; Cía.; Comp.

Compañía Anónima; C.A.; Comp. Anón.

Sociedad; Soc.

Sociedad Anónima; S.A.; Soc. Anón.

- (3) Addresses appearing after names on the List are not intended to exclude other addresses of the same firms or individuals. A listed name refers to all branches of the business in the country.
- (4) Revision IV of the Proclaimed List, of which this is a supplement, supersedes all previous lists published prior to November 12, 1942. The present series of supplements is cumulative, and each succeeding supplement supersedes all previous supplements to the List. Accordingly, the current Cumulative Supplement and Revision IV together constitute the effective List.
- (5) For the convenience of users, symbols are placed after each name on the List to indicate, by reference to the table below, the dates of the supplements or revisions in which the name first appeared, or was amended or deleted. It has not been found practicable, however, to indicate here the dates of listings made between July 17, 1941, the date of the original list, and Revision I, dated February 7, 1942. Accordingly, names appearing prior to Revision I and retained in that revision are followed only by the symbol "I". Roman numerals refer to revisions, arabic numerals to supplements. For example, a name followed by the symbols II-1, III, IV-1 signifies that the listing first appeared in Revision II, Supplement 1; was amended in Revision III; and was amended or deleted in Revision IV, Supplement 1. Since in the Cumulative Supplements deletions as well as amendments are carried in each succeeding supplement, the last of two or more symbols may reflect either an amendment or a deletion, depending on the action heading under which the listing currently appears.
