

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK

Fiscal Agent of the United States

[Circular No. 2804]
June 1, 1944]

CASH OFFERING
To Certain Commercial Banks

2½ Percent Treasury Bonds of 1965-70

(Additional Issue)

Dated February 1, 1944

Due March 15, 1970

with interest from June 26, 1944

2 Percent Treasury Bonds of 1952-54

Dated June 26, 1944

Due June 15, 1954

United States Savings Bonds, Series F

United States Savings Bonds, Series G

To all Commercial Banks
in the Second Federal Reserve District:

Supplementing the arrangements made available concurrently with the Fourth War Loan Drive, commercial banks, which are defined for this purpose as banks or trust companies accepting demand deposits, will be permitted to subscribe for their own account, subject to the limitations stated below, to United States Savings Bonds of Series F-1944 and Series G-1944, and may subscribe to 2½% Treasury Bonds of 1965-70 (Additional Issue) and 2% Treasury Bonds of 1952-54 in the period June 12 to July 8, 1944. However, all such subscriptions will be considered outside of the 16 billion dollar goal of the Fifth War Loan Drive and will not be considered a part of any quota. Copies of the official circulars relating to the offerings of such issues are included in our Circular No. 2800, dated May 19, 1944, which has been sent to all banking institutions in the Second Federal Reserve District.

The total amount of subscriptions by a commercial bank for its own account to the issues referred to above, together with the total amount of any other subscriptions it may have entered for its own account for (a) Savings Bonds of Series F-1944 or Series G-1944 since January 1, 1944, and (b) 2½% Treasury Bonds of 1965-70 or 2¼% Treasury Bonds of 1956-59 between January 18 and February 15, 1944, may not exceed 20% of the combined amount of its savings deposits, and time certificates of deposit* issued in the names of individuals, and of corporations, associations and other organizations not operated for profit, as shown on its books as of the date of the most recent call statement required by the supervisory authorities, or $400,000 (issue price) whichever is less. In any event, a bank may not purchase more than $100,000 (issue price) of Savings Bonds of Series F-1944 and Series G-1944 combined, including any bonds of such series previously purchased. If 20% of a bank's savings deposits and eligible time certificates of deposit is an odd amount, the aggregate amount of its subscriptions may be adjusted to the next highest $1,000.

It will be noted that the formula set forth above is based upon the aggregate amount of a commercial bank's subscriptions to such issues for its own account and not upon the amount of its holdings; accordingly, in computing the maximum amount for which a bank may subscribe, there must be taken into consideration the total amount of its previous subscriptions to such issues even though it may no longer be holding the securities. It should also be understood that the amount of time certificates of deposit issued in the names of corporations, associations and other organizations operated for profit must be excluded in determining the amount of securities for which a bank may subscribe.

Copies of our Application Form No. 7, for use by commercial banks in submitting subscriptions for their own account to the issues referred to above, are enclosed. A separate application should be submitted for each issue in respect of which a subscription is to be entered. Savings Bonds of Series F or Series G will be dated as of the first day of the month in which payment is received by us. Subscriptions to 2½% Treasury Bonds of 1965-70 and 2% Treasury Bonds of 1952-54 may be made during the period June 12 to July 8, 1944, both dates inclusive. Each of the issues of Treasury Bonds will be sold at par plus accrued interest from June 26, 1944, to the date payment is received by us, except that accrued interest is waived on $500 and $1,000 subscriptions.

The regulations governing United States Savings Bonds provide that such bonds may not be hypothecated as collateral; accordingly, bonds of Series F or Series G may not be deposited with us as collateral for a War Loan Deposit Account. There is no restriction upon the use of 2½% Treasury Bonds of 1965-70 or 2% Treasury Bonds of 1952-54 as collateral, and bonds of such issues belonging to a banking institution qualified as a special depository of public funds will be acceptable as security for its War Loan Deposit Account.

ALLAN SPROUL,
President.

Extracts from Regulation Q of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS

(c) Time certificates of deposit.—The term “time certificate of deposit” means a deposit evidenced by a negotiable or nonnegotiable instrument which provides on its face that the amount of such deposit is payable to bearer or to any specified person or to his order—

- (1) On a certain date, specified in the instrument, not less than 30 days after the date of the deposit, or
- (2) At the expiration of a certain specified time not less than 30 days after the date of the instrument, or
- (3) Upon notice in writing which is actually required to be given not less than 30 days before the date of repayment,¹ and
- (4) In all cases only upon presentation and surrender of the instrument.

* * * *

(e) Savings deposits.—The term “savings deposit” means a deposit, evidenced by a pass book, consisting of funds (i) deposited to the credit of one or more individuals, or of a corporation, association or other organization operated primarily for religious, philanthropic, charitable, educational, fraternal or other similar purposes and not operated for profit,⁴ or (ii) in which the entire beneficial interest is held by one or more individuals or by such a corporation, association or other organization, and in respect to which deposit—

- (1) The depositor is required, or may at any time be required, by the bank to give notice in writing of an intended withdrawal not less than 30 days before such withdrawal is made;
- (2) Withdrawals are permitted in only two ways, either (i) upon presentation of the pass book, through payment to the person presenting the pass book, or (ii) without presentation of the pass book, through payment to the depositor himself but not to any other person whether or not acting for the depositor.⁵

The presentation by any officer, agent or employee of the bank of a pass book or a duplicate thereof retained by the bank or by any of its officers, agents or employees is not a presentation of the pass book within the meaning of this regulation except where the pass book is held by the bank as a part of an estate of which the bank is a trustee or other fiduciary, or where the pass book is held by the bank as security for a loan. If a pass book is retained by the bank, it may not be delivered to any person other than the depositor for the purpose of enabling such person to present the pass book in order to make a withdrawal, although the bank may deliver the pass book to a duly authorized agent of the depositor for transmittal to the depositor.

Every withdrawal made upon presentation of a pass book shall be entered in the pass book at the time of the withdrawal, and every other withdrawal shall be entered in the pass book as soon as practicable after the withdrawal is made.

⁴ Deposits in joint accounts of two or more individuals may be classified as savings deposits if they meet the other requirements of the above definition, but deposits of a partnership operated for profit may not be so classified. Deposits to the credit of an individual of funds in which any beneficial interest is held by a corporation, partnership, association or other organization operated for profit or not operated primarily for religious, philanthropic, charitable, educational, fraternal or other similar purposes may not be classified as savings deposits.

⁵ Presentation of a pass book may be made over the counter or through the mails; and payment may be made over the counter, through the mails or otherwise, subject to the limitations of paragraph (2) above as to the person to whom such payment may be made.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS

(c) Time certificates of deposit.—The term “time certificate of deposit” means a deposit evidenced by a negotiable or nonnegotiable instrument which provides on its face that the amount of such deposit is payable to bearer or to any specified person or to his order—

- (1) On a certain date, specified in the instrument, not less than 30 days after the date of the deposit, or
- (2) At the expiration of a certain specified time not less than 30 days after the date of the instrument, or
- (3) Upon notice in writing which is actually required to be given not less than 30 days before the date of repayment,¹ and
- (4) In all cases only upon presentation and surrender of the instrument.

* * * *

(e) Savings deposits.—The term “savings deposit” means a deposit, evidenced by a pass book, consisting of funds (i) deposited to the credit of one or more individuals, or of a corporation, association or other organization operated primarily for religious, philanthropic, charitable, educational, fraternal or other similar purposes and not operated for profit,⁴ or (ii) in which the entire beneficial interest is held by one or more individuals or by such a corporation, association or other organization, and in respect to which deposit—

- (1) The depositor is required, or may at any time be required, by the bank to give notice in writing of an intended withdrawal not less than 30 days before such withdrawal is made;
- (2) Withdrawals are permitted in only two ways, either (i) upon presentation of the pass book, through payment to the person presenting the pass book, or (ii) without presentation of the pass book, through payment to the depositor himself but not to any other person whether or not acting for the depositor.⁵

The presentation by any officer, agent or employee of the bank of a pass book or a duplicate thereof retained by the bank or by any of its officers, agents or employees is not a presentation of the pass book within the meaning of this regulation except where the pass book is held by the bank as a part of an estate of which the bank is a trustee or other fiduciary, or where the pass book is held by the bank as security for a loan. If a pass book is retained by the bank, it may not be delivered to any person other than the depositor for the purpose of enabling such person to present the pass book in order to make a withdrawal, although the bank may deliver the pass book to a duly authorized agent of the depositor for transmittal to the depositor.

Every withdrawal made upon presentation of a pass book shall be entered in the pass book at the time of the withdrawal, and every other withdrawal shall be entered in the pass book as soon as practicable after the withdrawal is made.

⁴ Deposits in joint accounts of two or more individuals may be classified as savings deposits if they meet the other requirements of the above definition, but deposits of a partnership operated for profit may not be so classified. Deposits to the credit of an individual of funds in which any beneficial interest is held by a corporation, partnership, association or other organization operated for profit or not operated primarily for religious, philanthropic, charitable, educational, fraternal or other similar purposes may not be classified as savings deposits.

⁵ Presentation of a pass book may be made over the counter or through the mails; and payment may be made over the counter, through the mails or otherwise, subject to the limitations of paragraph (2) above as to the person to whom such payment may be made.
