

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 3125]
September 3, 1946]

CHANGE IN AUTHORIZED SIGNATURES

Library

At the request of the Secretary of the Treasury this bank has granted a leave of absence to ANDREW N. OVERBY, Assistant Vice President, in order that he may serve as Special Assistant to the Secretary of the Treasury in charge of international financial and monetary affairs. Accordingly, Mr. Overby no longer has authority to sign in behalf of the bank as indicated on page 4 of our Circular No. 3086, dated May 11, 1946; and his name should be removed from the list of persons who are authorized to sign in behalf of the bank.

ALLAN SPROUL,
President.
