

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK

Fiscal Agent of the United States

[Circular No. 3872
June 26, 1952]

Offering of $1,200,000,000 of 91-Day Treasury Bills

Dated July 3, 1952

Maturing October 2, 1952

To all Incorporated Banks and Trust Companies, and Others
Concerned, in the Second Federal Reserve District:

Following is the text of a notice published today:

FOR RELEASE, MORNING NEWSPAPERS,
Thursday, June 26, 1952.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
Washington

The Secretary of the Treasury, by this public notice, invites tenders for $1,200,000,000, or thereabouts, of 91-day Treasury bills, for cash and in exchange for Treasury bills maturing July 3, 1952, in the amount of $1,201,505,000, to be issued on a discount basis under competitive and non-competitive bidding as hereinafter provided. The bills of this series will be dated July 3, 1952, and will mature October 2, 1952, when the face amount will be payable without interest. They will be issued in bearer form only, and in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, $500,000, and $1,000,000 (maturity value).

Tenders will be received at Federal Reserve Banks and Branches up to the closing hour, two o'clock p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving time, Monday, June 30, 1952. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington. Each tender must be for an even multiple of $1,000, and in the case of competitive tenders the price offered must be expressed on the basis of 100, with not more than three decimals, e.g., 99.925. Fractions may not be used. It is urged that tenders be made on the printed forms and forwarded in the special envelopes which will be supplied by Federal Reserve Banks or Branches on application therefor.

Others than banking institutions will not be permitted to submit tenders except for their own account. Tenders will be received without deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied by payment of 2 percent of the face amount of Treasury bills applied for, unless the tenders are accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

Immediately after the closing hour, tenders will be opened at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches, following which public announcement will be made by the Secretary of the Treasury of the amount and price range of accepted bids. Those submitting tenders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection thereof. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to accept or reject any or all tenders, in whole or in part, and his action in any such respect shall be final. Subject to these reservations, non-competitive tenders for $200,000 or less without stated price from any one bidder will be accepted in full at the average price (in three decimals) of accepted competitive bids. Settlement for accepted tenders in accordance with the bids must be made or completed at the Federal Reserve Bank on July 3, 1952, in cash or other immediately available funds or in a like face amount of Treasury bills maturing July 3, 1952. Cash and exchange tenders will receive equal treatment. Cash adjustments will be made for differences between the par value of maturing bills accepted in exchange and the issue price of the new bills.

The income derived from Treasury bills, whether interest or gain from the sale or other disposition of the bills, shall not have any exemption, as such, and loss from the sale or other disposition of Treasury bills shall not have any special treatment, as such, under the Internal Revenue Code, or laws amendatory or supplementary thereto. The bills shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift, or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority. For purposes of taxation the amount of discount at which Treasury bills are originally sold by the United States shall be considered to be interest. Under Sections 42 and 117(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Section 115 of the Revenue Act of 1941, the amount of discount at which bills issued hereunder are sold shall not be considered to accrue until such bills shall be sold, redeemed or otherwise disposed of, and such bills are excluded from consideration as capital assets. Accordingly, the owner of Treasury bills (other than life insurance companies) issued hereunder need include in his income tax return only the difference between the price paid for such bills, whether on original issue or on subsequent purchase, and the amount actually received either upon sale or redemption at maturity during the taxable year for which the return is made, as ordinary gain or loss.

Treasury Department Circular No. 418, as amended, and this notice, prescribe the terms of the Treasury bills and govern the conditions of their issue. Copies of the circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch.

This Bank will receive tenders up to 2 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving time, Monday, June 30, 1952, at the Securities Department of its Head Office and at its Buffalo Branch. Please use the form on the reverse side of this circular to submit a tender, and return it in an envelope marked "Tender for Treasury Bills." Tenders may be submitted by telegraph, subject to written confirmation; they may not be submitted by telephone. Payment for the Treasury bills cannot be made by credit through the Treasury Tax and Loan Account. Settlement must be made in cash or other immediately available funds or in maturing Treasury bills.

ALLAN SPROUL, President.

NEW UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS

To the Chief Executive Officer of each Commercial Bank in the Second Federal Reserve District:

Recently you received a letter, dated June 23, 1952, signed jointly in behalf of the Federal and State supervisory authorities and by the President of the American Bankers Association, asking that you support the Treasury Department's new Savings Bond program by informing the public of the increased attractiveness of the recently revised Savings Bonds.

It is only by bringing to the attention of the public the improved investment characteristics of the new bonds, that the Savings Bond program can be made to contribute to sound debt management. In this period of deficit financing it is particularly important that more of the public's savings be invested in United States Savings Bonds. In this way the public can help reduce the Treasury's need to borrow from commercial banks, thus tending to check inflationary additions to the money supply and upward pressures on costs and prices.

You know of the recent changes in the terms of Savings Bonds and you recognize the advantages of the Savings Bond program. Many people do not. By reminding your customers of the program and its opportunities you will be doing a service to them and to the nation. Posters, pamphlets, and envelope stuffers (to be mailed with monthly statements) may be of assistance to you in bringing the facts about Savings Bonds to the attention of your customers, thus stimulating their interest in buying and keeping them. If you can use material of this sort, or if you would like any other assistance in connection with the Savings Bond program, this Bank and your State office of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division of the Treasury Department will be glad to help. U. S. Savings Bond Division offices are located at:

253 Broadway,
New York 7, N. Y.

972 Broad Street,
Newark 2, N. J.

403 Federal Building,
135 High Street,
Hartford 1, Conn.

Your continued cooperation in this important national effort will be appreciated.

President.
