

IMPORTANT—Please note that this offering is for 90-day Treasury Bills which will be dated Friday, November 28, 1952, owing to the fact that Thursday, November 27, will be Thanksgiving Day.

IMPORTANT—If you desire to bid on a competitive basis, fill in rate per 100 and maturity value in paragraph headed "Competitive Bid." If you desire to bid on a non-competitive basis, fill in only the maturity value in paragraph headed "Non-competitive Bid." DO NOT fill in both paragraphs on one form. A separate tender must be used for each bid, except that banks submitting bids on a competitive basis for their own and their customers' accounts may submit one tender for the total amount bid at each price, provided a list is attached showing the name of each bidder, the amount bid for his account, and method of payment. Forms for this purpose will be furnished upon request.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

November 20, 1952.

To all Banking Institutions in the Second Federal Reserve District:

We are pleased to announce that the Bank of New Hyde Park, New Hyde Park, New York, has become a member of the Federal Reserve System today.

The Bank of New Hyde Park first became a member bank on December 30, 1943. It withdrew from membership on August 10, 1951, in order to establish an out-of-town branch. On July 15, 1952, the law was amended to revise the minimum capital requirements for member banks operating out-of-town branches, thus enabling the bank to rejoin the Federal Reserve System.

ALLAN SPROUL,
President.
