[Circular No. 4561]
[January 29, 1958]

TREASURY FINANCING

To all Banking Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Second Federal Reserve District:

The following statement was made public today:

The Treasury Department today announced that on Monday, February 3, it will offer three new Treasury securities, all to be dated February 14, 1958, as follows:

- 2½ percent Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series A-1959, maturing February 14, 1959
- 3 percent Treasury Bonds of 1964, maturing February 15, 1964
- 3½ percent Treasury Bonds of 1990, maturing February 15, 1990

Each of the three issues will be open only on an exchange basis to holders of any of the following maturing securities:

Title of issue	Maturity date	Amount outstanding (Millions of dollars)
3¾% Treasury Certificates, Series A-1958	February 14, 1958	10,851
2½% Treasury Bonds of 1956-58	March 15, 1958	1,449
1½% Treasury Notes, Series EA-1958	April 1, 1958	383
Treasury Bills (Special Issue)	April 15, 1958	1,751
3½% Treasury Certificates, Series B-1958	April 15, 1958	2,351
Total		16,785

Interest on the new certificates will be payable on August 14, 1958, and February 14, 1959. Interest on the two new bonds will be payable on August 15, 1958, and thereafter on February 15 and August 15 in each year until they respectively mature.

Exchange of the maturing securities for any of the three new issues will be made par for par with the following interest adjustments:

3¾ Percent Certificates of Indebtedness of Series A-1958: Coupons dated February 14, 1958, to be detached and cashed when due.

2½ Percent Treasury Bonds of 1956-58: To be surrendered with coupons dated March 15, 1958, attached. Accrued interest from September 15, 1957, to February 14, 1958, will be paid the subscriber following acceptance of the bonds. In the case of registered bonds accrued interest will be paid in accordance with the assignments.

1½ Percent Treasury Notes of Series EA-1958: To be surrendered with coupons dated April 1, 1958, attached. Interest from October 1, 1957, to April 1, 1958, will be credited, accrued interest from February 14, 1958, to April 1, 1958, at the appropriate rate on the new securities for which the notes are exchanged will be charged, and the difference will be paid the subscriber following acceptance of the notes.

Treasury Bills maturing April 15, 1958: They will be accepted at face value. Accrued interest from February 14, 1958, to April 15, 1958, at the rate borne by the securities for which the bills are exchanged must be paid by the subscriber following acceptance of the bills.

3½ Percent Certificates of Indebtedness of Series B-1958: Coupons dated April 15, 1958, must be attached to certificates when surrendered. Interest from October 15, 1957, to February 14, 1958, will be paid if exchanged for new 3½ percent bonds. If exchanged for the 2½ percent certificates or the 3 percent bonds, interest from October 15, 1957, to April 15, 1958, will be credited; interest from February 14, 1958, to April 15, 1958, at the appropriate rate borne by the new securities subscribed for will be charged; and the difference will be paid the subscriber following acceptance of the certificates.

The subscription books will be open only on February 3 through February 5 for this exchange offering. Any subscription for any of the three issues addressed to a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or to the Treasurer of the United States and placed in the mail before midnight Wednesday, February 5, will be considered as timely.

Circulars and subscription forms will be mailed to reach you by Monday, February 3.

ALFRED HAYES,
President.
