

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

January 2, 1963

To All Banking Institutions in the Second Federal Reserve District:

We are pleased to announce that LINCOLN NATIONAL BANK OF STAMFORD, Stamford, Connecticut, has become a member of the Federal Reserve System, effective today, incident to the conversion of THE MORRIS PLAN BANK OF STAMFORD from a nonmember bank to a national bank. The Comptroller of the Currency has advised us that a certificate of authority has been issued to the national bank to commence business effective at the close of business December 31, 1962.

Officers of the bank are:

- |                  |                                 |
|------------------|---------------------------------|
| MATTHEW E. HANNA | Chairman                 |
| I. CHERNIACK     | President                |
| NORMAN H. READER | Executive Vice President |
| MYRON FRANKEL    | Vice President           |
| JOHN P. KEATING  | Vice President           |
| JOHN M. BRENNAN  | Assistant Vice President |
| WALTER JAKUBEK   | Cashier                  |

The A.B.A. transit number and check routing symbol of the bank remains  $\frac{51-113}{211}$ .

ALFRED HAYES,
President.