OF NEW YORK

Fiscal Agent of the United States

{ Circular No. 5567 }
October 30, 1964 }

CASH OFFERING

4 Percent Treasury Notes of Series D-1966

To All Banking Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Second Federal Reserve District:

The subscription books will be open Monday, November 2, for one day only, for a Treasury offering, at par, of 4 percent Treasury Notes of Series D-1966, dated November 15, 1964, maturing May 15, 1966, in the amount of $9¼ billion, or thereabouts.

Subscriptions will be subject to allotment. Payment must be made by November 16, in cash, or in 4⅞ percent Treasury Notes of Series C-1964, or in 3¾ percent Treasury Notes of Series F-1964, both maturing November 15, 1964. Payment cannot be made by credit to Treasury Tax and Loan Accounts.

The terms of the offering are set forth in Treasury Department Circular No. 12-64, Public Debt Series, a copy of which is printed on the following pages. Subscriptions from all subscribers, except banking institutions for their own account and others as specified in Section III of the Treasury circular, must be accompanied by payment of 2 percent (in cash or in maturing securities) of the amount of securities applied for. If subscribers required to make deposits desire to deposit maturing securities but do not have the denominations to meet exactly the minimum deposit requirement, they are urged to leave any excess on deposit to avoid denominational exchanges and unnecessary movement of securities.

Commercial banks may submit subscriptions for account of customers, provided the names of the customers are set forth in such subscriptions; in the case of subscriptions for account of customers other than individuals, their location (City and State) must also be furnished. All others may submit subscriptions only for their own account. Commercial banks are urged to retain the required deposits (cash or maturing securities) of their customers until after allotment of the new securities; if maturing securities are retained, the risk and expense involved in forwarding them to this Bank will thus be avoided. Commercial banks are urged to enter subscriptions for their own account and for account of their customers with the Federal Reserve Bank or Branch in the District in which they are located.

Subscriptions eligible for full allotment.—Subscriptions by or for account of States, political subdivisions or instrumentalities thereof, public pension and retirement and other public funds, international organizations in which the United States holds membership, foreign central banks and foreign States, Government Investment Accounts, and the Federal Reserve Banks will be allotted in full if accompanied by a certification that the total amount of its subscriptions does not exceed the amount of the two maturing issues of eligible securities owned or contracted for purchase for value, at 4 p.m., Eastern Standard time, October 28, 1964. If any subscription is entered by or for account of such subscriber without a certification or in an amount larger than the amount certified, then all subscriptions by or for account of such subscriber, including any accompanied by a certification, will be allotted on the basis of the publicly announced allotment. Copies of a certification form are enclosed for all commercial banks and other addressees on our mailing lists that may include such subscribers.

Subscriptions will be received by this Bank as fiscal agent of the United States. Subscriptions should be submitted immediately on the enclosed Form N-1; if maturing securities accompany a subscription, the enclosed Form N-2 should be submitted with Form N-1. If filed by telegram or letter, the subscriptions should be confirmed immediately by mail on the forms provided. The subscription books will remain open for one day only, Monday, November 2. Any subscription addressed to a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or to the Treasury Department and placed in the mail before midnight Monday will be considered timely.

ALFRED HAYES,
President.

The amount of the offering under this circular is $9,250,000,000, or thereabouts. The following securities maturing November 15, 1964, will be accepted at par in payment or exchange, in whole or in part, for the notes subscribed for, to the extent such subscriptions are allotted by the Treasury:

The books will be open only on November 2, 1964, for the receipt of subscriptions for this issue.

II. DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

1. The notes will be dated November 15, 1964, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 4 percent per annum, payable semiannually on May 15 and November 15, 1965, and on May 15, 1966. They will mature May 15, 1966, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the notes is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The notes are subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

4. Bearer notes with interest coupons attached, and notes registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, $1,000,000, $100,000,000 and $500,000,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of notes of different denominations and of coupon and registered notes, and for the transfer of registered notes, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

5. The notes will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States notes.

III. SUBSCRIPTION AND ALLOTMENT

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. 20220. Only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Commercial banks, which for this purpose are defined as banks accepting demand deposits, may submit subscriptions for account of customers provided the names of the customers are set forth in such subscriptions. Others than commercial banks will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Subscriptions from commercial banks for their own account will be restricted in each case to an amount not exceeding 50 percent of the combined capital (not including capital notes or debentures), surplus and undivided profits of the subscribing bank. Subscriptions will be received without deposit from banking institutions for their own account, Federally-insured savings and loan associations, States, political subdivisions or instrumentalities thereof, public pension and retirement and other public funds, international organizations in which the United States holds membership, foreign central banks and foreign States, dealers who make primary markets in Government securities and report daily to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York their positions with respect to Government securities and borrowings thereon, Federal Reserve Banks and Government Investment Accounts. Subscriptions from all others must be accompanied by payment (in cash or in securities of the two issues enumerated in paragraph 1 of Section I hereof, which will be accepted at par) of 2 percent of the amount of notes applied for, not subject to withdrawal until after allotment. Registered notes submitted as deposits should be assigned as provided in Section V hereof. Following allotment, any portion of the 2 percent payment in excess of 2 percent of the amount of notes allotted may be released upon the request of the subscribers.

2. All subscribers requesting registered notes will be required to furnish appropriate identifying numbers as required on tax returns and other documents submitted to the Internal Revenue Service, i.e., an individual's social security number or an employer identification number.

3. All subscribers are required to agree not to purchase or to sell, or to make any agreements with respect to the purchase or sale or other disposition of any notes of this issue at a specific rate or price, until after midnight November 2, 1964.

4. Commercial banks in submitting subscriptions will be required to certify that they have no beneficial interest in any of the subscriptions they enter for the account of their customers, and that their customers have no beneficial interest in the banks' subscriptions for their own account.

5. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject or reduce any subscription, to allot less than the amount of notes applied for, and to make different percentage allotments to various classes of subscribers; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions from States, political subdivisions or instrumentalities thereof, public pension and retirement and other public funds, international organizations in which the United States holds membership, foreign central banks and foreign States, Federal Reserve Banks and Government Investment Accounts will be allotted in full if the subscriber certifies in writing that at 4 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, October 28, 1964, it owned or had contracted to purchase for value securities of the two issues enumerated in paragraph 1 of Section I hereof in an aggregate amount equal to or greater than the amount of its subscription. If the certification is not made, none of such subscriber's subscription shall be subject to a preferred full allotment. The basis of the allotment will be publicly announced, and allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. PAYMENT

1. Payment at par and accrued interest,¹ if any, for notes allotted hereunder must be made or completed on or before November 16, 1964, or on later allotment. Payment will not be deemed to have been completed where registered notes are requested if the appropriate identifying number, as required by paragraph 2 of Section III hereof, has not been furnished; provided, however, if a subscriber has applied for but is unable to furnish the identifying number by the payment date only because it has not been issued, he may elect to receive, pending the furnishing of the identifying number, interim receipts and in this case payment will be deemed to have been completed. In every case where full payment is not completed, the payment with application up to 2 percent of the amount of notes allotted shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Payment may be made for any notes allotted hereunder in cash or by exchange of securities of the two issues enumerated in paragraph 1 of Section I hereof, which will be accepted at par. Where payment is made with notes in bearer form, coupons dated November 15, 1964, should be detached and cashed when due. In the case of registered notes, the final interest due on November 15, 1964, will be paid by check drawn in accordance with the assignments on the notes surrendered, or by credit
