

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 5742]
December 8, 1965]

PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON TIME AND SAVINGS DEPOSITS
Revision of Operating Circular No. 15

To All Member Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District:

Enclosed is a copy of Operating Circular No. 15, Revised December 8, 1965, entitled "Payment of Interest on Time and Savings Deposits."

The circular has been revised to take into account (1) the changes in the Supplement to Regulation Q of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, effective December 6, 1965, announced in our Circulars Nos. 5735 and 5736, (2) conforming changes in General Regulation No. 3 of the Banking Board of the State of New York, effective December 7, 1965, and (3) the amendment, effective August 5, 1965, to Regulation Q, extending for an additional three years from October 15, 1965 the authority of domestic banks to pay interest on certain foreign time deposits at rates differing from those applicable to domestic time depositors, announced in our Circular No. 5690.

Member banks in New York State should note that for them the effective date of the new maximum rates is December 7, 1965.

Additional copies of the enclosure will be furnished upon request.

ALFRED HAYES,
President.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK

[Operating Circular No. 15]
[Revised December 8, 1965]

PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON TIME AND SAVINGS DEPOSITS

To All Member Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District:

This circular contains information regarding the maximum rates of interest that member banks in the Second Federal Reserve District may lawfully pay on time and savings deposits.

Statutory provisions

1. Section 19 of the Federal Reserve Act (hereinafter referred to as the "Act") provides generally, among other things, that no member bank shall pay any interest on any deposit payable on demand, and that the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System shall, by regulation, limit the rate of interest that may be paid by member banks on time and savings deposits;¹ and authorizes the Board of Governors to define certain terms used in the Act, to determine what shall be deemed a payment of interest, and to prescribe rules and regulations to effectuate the purposes of the section.

Regulation Q

2. Under authority of the provisions of Section 19 of the Act, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has issued Regulation Q, entitled "Payment of Interest on Deposits." Reference is made to the Regulation for the definitions of terms used in the Act and for details of the prohibition against the payment of interest on deposits payable on demand and the limitations upon the payment of interest on time and savings deposits.

Supplement to Regulation Q

3. The Supplement to Regulation Q, effective December 6, 1965, prescribes the maximum rates of interest that member banks may pay on time and savings deposits.¹ We will promptly notify our member banks of any change in these rates.

Member banks limited to maximum rate for State banks

4. Section 24 of the Act provides that the rate of interest that a national banking association may pay upon time deposits or upon savings deposits shall not exceed the maximum rate authorized by law to be paid upon such deposits by State banks or trust companies organized under the laws of the State in which such association is located.

¹ The foregoing provisions are not applicable: (a) to any deposit that is payable only at an office of a member bank located outside of the States of the United States and the District of Columbia; and (b) during the period commencing on October 15, 1962 and ending on October 15, 1968, to time deposits of foreign governments, monetary and financial authorities of foreign governments when acting as such, or international financial institutions of which the United States is a member.

(OVER)

5. Section 217.3(e) of Regulation Q provides that the rate of interest paid by a member bank on a time deposit or savings deposit shall not exceed either the applicable maximum rate prescribed in the Supplement to Regulation Q, or the applicable maximum rate authorized by law to be paid upon such deposits by State banks or trust companies organized under the laws of the State in which such member bank is located, whichever may be less.

Banks located in the State of New York

6. General Regulation No. 3 (Amendment) of the Banking Board of the State of New York, effective December 7, 1965, provides, among other things, for maximum rates of interest that banks and trust companies organized under the laws of the State of New York may pay on time and savings deposits. The maximum rates of interest prescribed by General Regulation No. 3 for time and savings deposits in commercial banks and trust companies organized under the laws of the State of New York are identical with those prescribed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in the current Supplement to its Regulation Q.

Banks located in Connecticut and New Jersey

7. The States of Connecticut and New Jersey have not established maximum rates of interest on time and savings deposits payable by commercial banks and trust companies organized under the laws of those States. However, member banks in such States are subject to Regulation Q.

Revision of this circular

8. The right is reserved to withdraw, add to, or amend at any time, any of the provisions of this circular.

Effect of this circular on previous circular

9. This circular supersedes our Operating Circular No. 15, Revised December 7, 1964.

ALFRED HAYES,
President.
