CASH OFFERING

4¾ Percent Treasury Notes of Series B-1968

4¾ Percent Treasury Notes of Series A-1972

To All Banking Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Second Federal Reserve District:

The subscription books will be open Monday, January 30, for one day only, for a Treasury offering of —

4¾ percent Treasury Notes of Series B-1968, dated February 15, 1967, maturing May 15, 1968, at 99.875, and 4¾ percent Treasury Notes of Series A-1972, dated February 15, 1967, maturing February 15, 1972, at 99.625, in the amount of $7.5 billion, or thereabouts.

Subscriptions will be subject to allotment. Payment must be made by February 15, in cash, or in 3⅝ percent Treasury Notes of Series B-1967, or 4 percent Treasury Notes of Series C-1967, both maturing February 15, 1967. Payment cannot be made by credit to Treasury Tax and Loan Accounts.

The terms of the offering are set forth in Treasury Department Circulars No. 1-67 and No. 2-67, Public Debt Series; a copy of each is printed on the following pages. Subscriptions from all subscribers, except banking institutions for their own account and others as specified in Section III of the Treasury circulars, must be accompanied by payment of 2 percent (in cash or in maturing securities) of the amount of securities applied for. If subscribers required to make deposits desire to deposit the maturing securities but do not have the denominations to meet exactly the minimum deposit requirement, they are urged to leave any excess on deposit to avoid denominational exchanges and unnecessary movement of securities.

Only commercial banks may submit subscriptions for account of customers, provided the names of the customers are set forth in such subscriptions. On subscriptions for account of customers of correspondent banks, the names of such customers, and if not individuals, their locations, must be furnished. Others than commercial banks may submit subscriptions only for their own account. Commercial banks are urged to retain the required deposits (cash or maturing securities) of their customers until after allotment of the new securities; if the maturing securities are retained, the risk and expense involved in forwarding them to this Bank will thus be avoided. Commercial banks are urged to enter subscriptions for their own account, and for account of their customers, with the Federal Reserve Bank or Branch in the District in which they are located.

Subscriptions eligible for full allotment. — A subscription by or for account of any State, political subdivision or instrumentality thereof, public pension and retirement and other public fund, international organization in which the United States holds membership, foreign central bank, foreign State, Government Investment Account, or Federal Reserve Bank will be allotted in full if accompanied by a certification that at 4 p.m., Eastern Standard time, January 25, 1967, it owned or had contracted to purchase for value the maturing securities in an amount equal to or greater than the amount of its subscription, and that such securities will be submitted in payment for its subscription. Any such subscriber may enter an additional subscription, which will be subject to a percentage allotment. Copies of a certification form are enclosed for all commercial banks and public institutions of the types listed above.

Subscriptions will be received by this Bank as fiscal agent of the United States. Subscriptions should be submitted immediately on the enclosed Form A-1 for the 4¾ percent 15-month notes or Form B-1 for the 4¾ percent 5-year notes; if maturing securities accompany a subscription, the enclosed Form A-2 or B-2 should be submitted with Form A-1 or B-1, respectively. If filed by telegram or letter, the subscriptions should be confirmed immediately by mail on the forms provided. The subscription books will remain open for one day only, Monday, January 30. Any subscription addressed to a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or to the Treasury Department and placed in the mail before midnight, Monday, will be considered timely.

They will mature May 15, 1968, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the notes is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The notes are subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

III. SUBSCRIPTION AND ALLOTMENT

1. Subscriptions accepting the offer made by this circular will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. 20220. Only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Commercial banks, which for this purpose are defined as banks accepting demand deposits, may submit subscriptions for account of customers provided the names of the customers are set forth in such subscriptions. Others than commercial banks will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Subscriptions from commercial banks for their own account will be restricted in each case to an amount not exceeding 50 percent of the combined capital (not including capital notes or debentures), surplus and undivided profits of the subscribing bank. Subscriptions will be received without deposit from banking institutions for their own account, Federally-insured savings and loan associations, States, political subdivisions or instrumentalities thereof, public pension and retirement and other public funds, international organizations in which the United States holds membership, foreign central banks and foreign States, dealers who make primary markets in Government securities and report daily to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York their positions with respect to Government securities and borrowings thereon, Federal Reserve Banks and Government Investment Accounts. Subscriptions from all others must be accompanied by payment (in cash or in notes of the two issues enumerated in paragraph 1 of Section I hereof, which will be accepted at par) of 2 percent of the amount of notes applied for, not subject to withdrawal until after allotment. Registered securities submitted as deposits should be assigned as provided in Section V hereof. Following allotment, any portion of the 2 percent payment in excess of 2 percent of the amount of notes allotted may be released upon the request of the subscribers.

2. All subscribers are required to agree not to purchase or to sell, or to make any agreements with respect to the purchase or sale or other disposition of any notes of this issue at a specific rate or price, until after midnight January 30, 1967.

3. Commercial banks in submitting subscriptions will be required to certify that they have no beneficial interest in any of the subscriptions they enter for the account of their customers, and that their customers have no beneficial interest in the banks' subscriptions for their own account.

4. Under the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, the Secretary of the Treasury has the authority to reject or reduce any subscription, to allot less than the amount of notes applied for, and to make different percentage allotments to various classes of subscribers when he deems it to be in the public interest; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to the exercise of that authority, subscriptions will be allotted:

- (1) in full if the subscription is for a State, political subdivision or instrumentality thereof, public pension and retirement and other public fund, international organization in which the United States holds membership, foreign central bank and foreign State, Federal Reserve Bank, or Government Investment Account and such subscriber certifies in writing that at 4 p.m., Eastern Standard time, January 25, 1967, it owned or had contracted to purchase for value notes of the two issues enumerated in paragraph 1 of Section I hereof, in an aggregate amount equal to or greater than the amount of such subscription (any such subscriber may enter an additional subscription subject to a percentage allotment); and
- (2) on a percentage basis, to be publicly announced.

Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. PAYMENT

1. Payment at 99.875 percent of their face value and accrued interest, if any, for notes allotted hereunder must be made or completed on or before February 15, 1967, or on later allotment. Payment will not be deemed to have been completed where registered notes are requested if the appropriate identifying number as required on tax returns and other documents submitted to the Internal Revenue Service (an individual's social security number or an employer identification number) is not furnished. In every case where full payment is not completed, the payment with application up to 2 percent of the amount of notes allotted shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Payment may be made for any notes allotted hereunder in cash or by exchange of notes of the two issues enumerated in paragraph 1 of Section I hereof, which will be accepted at par. A cash adjustment will be made for the difference ($1.25 per $1,000) between the par value of maturing notes accepted in exchange and the issue price of the new notes. The payment will be made by check or by credit in any account maintained by a banking institution with the Federal Reserve Bank of its District, following acceptance of the maturing notes. In the case of registered notes, the payment will be made in accordance with the assignments on the notes surrendered. When payment is made with notes in bearer form, coupons dated February 15, 1967, should be detached and cashed when due. When payment is made with registered notes, the final interest due on February 15, 1967, will be paid by issue of interest checks in regular course to holders of record on January 13, 1967, the date the transfer books closed.
