Circular No. 6710
April 2, 1971

AMENDMENT TO TREASURY'S WEEKLY BILL OFFERING

*To All Incorporated Banks and Trust Companies, and Others
Concerned, in the Second Federal Reserve District:*

The following statement was issued yesterday by the Treasury Department:

The Treasury Department, by this public notice, amends its invitation for tenders dated March 30, 1971, for weekly Treasury bills.

The aggregate amount of tenders invited for the two series shall be $3,600,000,000 in place of the $3,500,000,000 invited in the March 30 announcement. The amount of tenders invited for 91-day bills shall be $2,000,000,000, or thereabouts, instead of $1,900,000,000 as announced on March 30.

This amendment will conform the invitation to the Treasury's release of March 16, 1971, announcing that $200 million would be added to each of four successive weekly offerings of Treasury bills beginning with the auction of March 22.

The invitation for tenders dated March 30, 1971, referred to above, was contained in our Circular No. 6707, which was sent to you on that date.

Alfred Hayes,
President.
