The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System today postponed until September 1, 1972, the effective date of proposed regulatory amendments setting forth the conditions under which credit may be obtained without regard to initial margin requirements for the purpose of providing capital to broker-dealer firms.

The text of the revised proposals referred to in the above statement is contained in our Circular No. 6764, which was sent to you on July 19, 1971.

Printed below is the text of the notice of postponement filed for publication in the Federal Register.
