FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM
CONSUMER ADVISORY COUNCIL

Solicitation of Nominations for Members of Consumer Advisory Council

The Board of Governors is seeking from the public nominations of qualified individuals for appointment to its Consumer Advisory Council. The Consumer Advisory Council was established by Congress in 1976, at the suggestion of the Board, to advise the Board on the exercise of its duties under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other consumer-related matters. The Board, therefore, is especially interested in candidates who are familiar with issues in the area of consumer credit. The Council should represent the interests of both creditors and consumers.

Generally, the Council meets four times a year for approximately a day and a half. Council members who are not Federal employees will be paid $100 for each day spent attending and traveling to and from meetings. In addition, such members may be reimbursed for travel expenses associated with meetings. Listed below are the names, affiliations, and terms of office of current Council members:
