The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System is seeking nominations from the public for 13 appointments to its Consumer Advisory Council. The following is quoted from the text of the statement issued by the Board of Governors:

Nominations should be submitted in writing to Dolores S. Smith, Assistant Director, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551, and must be received no later than August 2, 1982.

Nominations should include the name, address, and telephone number of the nominee, past and present positions held, and special knowledge, interests, and experience related to consumer financial matters.

The Consumer Advisory Council was established by Congress in 1976, at the suggestion of the Board, to advise the Board on the exercise of its duties under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other consumer-related matters. The Council meets four times a year.

Nominations may be sent to this Bank, to the attention of George R. Juncker, Manager, Consumer Affairs and Bank Regulations Department, who will pass your suggestions on to the Board of Governors.

Printed on the following pages is the text of the Board's formal notice in this matter, which includes a complete list of the current members of the Consumer Advisory Council.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Consumer Advisory Council;
Solicitation of Nominations for Membership

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

ACTION: Solicitation of nominations for membership on the Board's Consumer Advisory Council.

SUMMARY: The Board is asking the public to nominate qualified individuals for 13 appointments to its Consumer Advisory Council. Nominations should include the name, address, and telephone number of the nominee, together with information about past and present positions held, special knowledge, interests, and experience related to consumer credit or other financial services. It is contemplated that the Board will announce its selection of new members by mid-November.

DATE: Nominations should be received by August 2, 1982.

ADDRESS: Nominations should be mailed to Dolores S. Smith, Assistant Director, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D. C. 20551.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ann Marie Bray, Staff Assistant, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D. C. 20551, (202) 452-2412.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Consumer Advisory Council was established by the Congress in 1976 to advise the Board on the exercise of its duties under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other consumer-related matters. The Council by law represents the interests both of consumers and of the financial community. Members serve three-year terms that are staggered to provide the Council with continuity.

Thirteen new members will be selected this fall, to replace members whose terms expire on December 31, 1982. The Board is particularly interested in candidates who are familiar with issues in the area of consumer credit and other financial services. In making the new appointments, the Board also will seek to complement the qualifications of continuing Council members in terms of affiliation and geographic representation. Each year the nominations have numbered in the hundreds. With only 13 vacancies, this means that many highly qualified and interested individuals will not have the opportunity to serve and that not every interested group can be represented.

The Council meets four times a year for approximately a day and a half. Council members are paid $100 for each day spent attending or traveling to and from meetings.

Nominations should be submitted in writing to Dolores S. Smith, Assistant Director, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D. C. 20551, and must be received no later than August 2, 1982. Nominations should include the name, address and telephone number of the nominee, past and present positions held, and special knowledge, interests, or experience relating to consumer financial matters. This information will be made available for public inspection and copying upon request, except as provided in § 261.6(a) of the Board's Rules Regarding Availability of Information. The Board expects to announce its selection of new members by mid-November.
