

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 9818
March 20, 1985]

Return of Checks and ACH Items
For Closed Ohio Financial Institutions

To All Depository Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Second Federal Reserve District:

The following statement has been issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland:

In view of the March 15, 1985 proclamation of the Governor of Ohio, checks and other cash items drawn on the depository institutions listed below cannot be paid at this time. Checks and other cash items drawn on such institutions will be returned by this Bank.

With respect to ACH items, this Bank will also return debit and credit items that settle on or after March 18, 1985 originating at or to be received by these depository institutions.

The names, locations, and routing numbers of the depository institutions affected by the proclamation of the Governor of Ohio are listed on the following pages. Questions on this matter may be directed to James O. Aston, Vice President in charge of our Check Processing Function (Tel. No. 212-791-6334).

E. GERALD CORRIGAN,
President.
