CONSUMER ADVISORY COUNCIL

Request For Nominations

To the Chief Executive Officers of Depository Institutions in the Second Federal Reserve District, and Others Concerned:

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System is seeking nominations from the public for seven appointments to its Consumer Advisory Council. In this regard, the following statement was issued by the Board of Governors:

The Federal Reserve Board has announced that it is seeking nominations of qualified individuals for seven new appointments to its Consumer Advisory Council to serve three-year terms beginning in January 1987.

The Council, established by Congress in 1976, advises the Board on the exercise of its responsibilities under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other matters on which the Board seeks its advice. The Council meets three times a year.

Nominations should be submitted in writing to Dolores S. Smith, Assistant Director, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551. Nominations must be received no later than August 22, 1986.

Nominations should include the name, address, and telephone number of the nominee. In addition, information about past and present positions held, special knowledge, interests or experience related to consumer credit or other consumer financial services should be included.

Nominations may also be sent to Eric K. Tarlow, Supervising Examiner, Compliance Examinations Department, who will then forward them to the Board of Governors.

Printed on the reverse side of this circular is the text of the Board's formal notice in this matter, which has been reprinted from the Federal Register. The notice includes a complete list of the current members of the Consumer Advisory Council.

E. GERALD CORRIGAN,
President.

Consumer Advisory Council;
Solicitation of Nominations for Membership

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

ACTION: Solicitation of nominations for membership on the Board's Consumer Advisory Council.

SUMMARY: The Board is asking the public to nominate qualified individuals for appointment to its Consumer Advisory Council. Seven new members will be selected for three-year terms that will begin in January 1987. Nominations should include the name, address, and telephone number of the nominee, together with information about past and present positions held, and special knowledge, interests or experience related to consumer credit or other consumer financial services. The Board is particularly interested in receiving nominations of persons from consumer advocacy groups, community organizations, state and local government offices, and the academic community who have taken special interest in consumer or mortgage credit or other consumer financial services. It is contemplated that the Board will announce its selection of new members by year-end.

DATE: Nominations should be received by August 22, 1986.

ADDRESS: Nominations should be submitted in writing to Dolores S. Smith, Assistant Director, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, DC 20551. This information about nominees is available for inspection upon request, except as provided in § 261.6(a) of the Board's Rules Regarding Availability of Information. (12 CFR 261.6(a)).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Bedelia Calhoun, Staff Specialist, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, (202) 452-3305; or for Telecommunications Device for the Deaf (TD) users, Earnestine Hill or Dorothea Thompson, (202) 452-3544; Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, DC 20551.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Consumer Advisory Council was established by the Congress in 1976 to advise the Federal Reserve Board on the exercise of its duties under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other consumer-related matters. The Council by law represents the interests both of consumers and of the financial community. Members serve three-year terms that are staggered to provide the Council with continuity.

Seven new members will be selected this year to replace members whose terms expire on December 31, 1986. In making the appointments, the Board will seek to complement the qualifications of continuing Council members in terms of affiliation and geographic representation, and to ensure the representation of women and minority groups. The Board expects to announce its selection of new members by year-end.

The Board is interested in candidates who have some familiarity with current issues in the area of consumer credit and other consumer financial services. The Board is particularly interested in receiving nominations of persons associated with consumer and community organizations, state and local government offices, and the academic community who have taken special interest in consumer or mortgage credit or other consumer financial services.

The Council meets in Washington, DC three times a year. Council members are paid $100 per day for participating in the one and a half day meetings and for travel time. The Board also pays travel expenses.
