

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK

At-tn. No. 10,086 (6)

October 10, 1986

To All Depository Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Second Federal Reserve District:

We have been advised that the Texas Commerce Bank, N.A., Houston, Texas, plans to close the New York branch of its subsidiary, Texas Commerce International Bank (Routing No. 0260-0405-1). As a result, the account of Texas Commerce International Bank, a participant in the Manhattan, Bronx, and Brooklyn Collection Arrangement, was closed at this Bank as of the close of business September 30, 1986. All cash and noncash items payable by, at, or through the New York branch of the Texas Commerce International Bank that are sent to this Bank are being returned unpaid to depositing institutions.

For information concerning the collection of these items, you may contact Luis D. Ortiz, Senior Vice President, at the Texas Commerce Bank, N.A., Houston, Texas (Tel. No. 713-236-4226).

JOHN F. SOBALA,
Vice President.
