[Circular No. 1694]
September 8, 1936]

Offering of United States of America 2¾ Percent Treasury Bonds of 1956-59

Dated and bearing interest from September 15, 1936

Due September 15, 1959

Redeemable at the option of the United States at par and accrued interest on and after September 15, 1936

Interest payable March 15 and September 15

(The amount of the offering is $400,000,000, or thereabouts, with the right reserved to the Secretary of the Treasury to increase the offering by an amount sufficient to accept all subscriptions for which Treasury Notes of Series D-1936, maturing September 15, 1936, are tendered in payment and accepted.)

To all Banking Institutions and Others Concerned in the Second Federal Reserve District:

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau today announced an offering of 2¾ percent Treasury Bonds of 1956-59 for cash and in exchange for Treasury Notes of Series D-1936, maturing September 15, 1936. The terms of this offering are set forth in Treasury Department circular No. 567 dated September 8, 1936, copy of which is printed on the following pages.

It will be noted from Treasury circular No. 567 that cash subscriptions from banks and trust companies for their own account will be received without deposit but will be restricted in each case to an amount not exceeding one-half of the combined capital and surplus of the subscribing bank or trust company. Cash subscriptions from all others must be accompanied, if for $5,000 or less by payment in full; and, if for more than $5,000, by payment of 10 percent of the amount of bonds applied for, but not less than $5,000. It will also be noted that Treasury Notes of Series D-1936, maturing September 15, 1936, will be accepted at par in payment for any bonds subscribed for and allotted, and such payment should be made when the subscription is tendered.

In his statement made public today relating to this offering, Secretary Morgenthau pointed out that

“In order to provide an equitable allotment and distribution of the bonds among all classes of subscribers, all banking institutions and others concerned are again urged to cooperate in the manner outlined in Department letter of May 27, 1936, addressed to the president of each Federal Reserve bank and made public at that time.”

A copy of the letter referred to accompanied our circular No. 1670, dated May 27, 1936.

The subscription books for this offering are now open, and applications will be received by this bank as fiscal agent of the United States. Subscriptions should be made on official subscription blanks and mailed immediately, or if filed by telegram or letter, should be confirmed immediately by mail on the blanks provided. Such telegrams or letters should indicate whether the subscriptions are cash subscriptions or exchange subscriptions. Where such telegraphic or letter subscription is made by a bank the telegram or letter should contain a complete classification of the subscriptions, if any, for the customers of the subscribing bank as provided for in the subscription blank.

GEORGE L. HARRISON,
President.

1936
Department Circular No. 567
Public Debt Service

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, September 8, 1936.

I. OFFERING OF BONDS

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for 2¾ percent bonds of the United States, designated Treasury Bonds of 1956-59. The amount of the offering is $400,000,000, or thereabouts, with the right reserved to the Secretary of the Treasury to increase the offering by an amount sufficient to accept all subscriptions for which Treasury Notes of Series D-1936, maturing September 15, 1936, are tendered in payment and accepted.

II. DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

1. The bonds will be dated September 15, 1936, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 2¾ percent per annum, payable semiannually on March 15 and September 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature September 15, 1959, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after September 15, 1956, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest, on any interest day or days, on 4 months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. In case of partial redemption the bonds to be redeemed will be determined by such method as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. From the date of redemption designated in any such notice, interest on the bonds called for redemption shall cease.

2. The bonds shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, or gift taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above.

3. The bonds will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, but will not bear the circulation privilege and will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.

4. Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached, and bonds registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds, and for the transfer of registered bonds, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

5. The bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States bonds.

III. SUBSCRIPTION AND ALLOTMENT

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Others than banking institutions will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Cash subscriptions from banks and trust companies for their own account will be received without deposit but will be restricted in each case to an amount not exceeding one-half of the combined capital and surplus of the subscribing bank or trust company. Cash subscriptions from all others must be accompanied, if for $5,000 or less by payment in full; and, if for more than $5,000, by payment of 10 percent of the amount of bonds applied for, but not less than $5,000. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, cash subscriptions for amounts up to and including $5,000 will be given preferred allotment; cash subscriptions for amounts over $5,000 will be allotted on an equal percentage basis, but not less than the maximum preferred allotment; and subscriptions in payment of which Treasury Notes of Series D-1936 are tendered will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment, and the basis of the allotment will be publicly announced.

IV. PAYMENT

1. Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for bonds allotted on cash subscriptions must be made or completed on or before September 15, 1936, or on later allotment. In every case where payment is not so completed, the payment with application up to 10 percent of the amount of bonds applied for shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Any qualified depository will be permitted to make payment by credit for bonds allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve bank of its district. Treasury Notes of Series D-1936, maturing September 15, 1936, will be accepted at par in payment for any bonds subscribed for and allotted, and such payment should be made when the subscription is tendered.

V. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive bonds.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks.
