

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 5079]
August 31, 1961

FEDERAL FARM LOAN BONDS

—Redemption of September 20 Maturity

—Offering of New Bonds

To All Banks and Trust Companies, and Others Concerned, in the Second Federal Reserve District:

At the request of the twelve Federal Land Banks, transmitted to us by the Treasury Department, we bring to your attention the following notice:

An issue of $120 million consolidated Federal farm loan 4 percent bonds dated November 3, 1958, will mature on September 20, 1961. These bonds may be redeemed through the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches or the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

Funds for the redemption of the maturing bonds and for other requirements will be provided by the Federal Land Banks through a public offering of consolidated Federal farm loan bonds for delivery September 20, 1961. The new bonds will be offered for cash, no preference being given holders of the maturing issue. The offering will comprise $193,250,000 of 4¼ percent bonds dated September 20, 1961, due July 20, 1966.

The bonds will be offered by the banks' Fiscal Agent, John T. Knox, One Chase Manhattan Plaza, New York 5, N. Y., through an organized dealer group, at a price to be announced on or about September 7.

Additional copies of this circular will be furnished upon request.

ALFRED HAYES,
President.
