Additional amounts of the notes and bonds will be allotted to Government accounts and the Federal Reserve Banks in exchange for their holdings of the maturing bonds, which total $0.7 billion.

The notes and bonds will be issued in registered and bearer form in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000.

Tenders for the notes of Series C-1979 will be received up to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard time, Tuesday, October 30, 1973, and tenders for the notes of Series H-1975 and the bonds will be received up to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard time, Wednesday, October 31, 1973, at any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch, and at the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Securities Division, Washington, D. C. 20222; provided, however, that noncompetitive tenders will be considered timely received if they are mailed to any such agency under a postmark no later than October 29 for the notes of Series C-1979, and October 30 for the notes of Series H-1975 and the bonds. Each tender must be in the amount of $1,000 or a multiple thereof, and must state the price offered, if it is a competitive tender, or the term "noncompetitive", if it is a noncompetitive tender.

The price on competitive tenders for the notes must be expressed on the basis of 100, with two decimals, e.g., 100.00. Tenders at a price less than 99.51 for the notes of Series H-1975 and 98.51 for the notes of Series C-1979 will not be accepted. Tenders at the highest prices will be accepted to the extent required to attain the amount offered. Successful competitive bidders for the notes will be required to pay for the notes at the price they bid. Noncompetitive bidders will be required to pay the average price of all accepted competitive tenders for the issue.

The price on competitive tenders for the bonds must be expressed on the basis of 100, with two decimals in a multiple of .05, e.g., 100.10, 100.05, 100.00, 99.95, etc. Tenders for the bonds at a price less than 95.30 will not be accepted. Tenders at the highest prices will be accepted to the extent required to attain the amount offered. All accepted tenders for the bonds will be awarded at the price of the lowest accepted bid.

(Over)

Fractions may not be used in tenders. The notation "TENDER FOR TREASURY NOTES (SERIES H-1975 or C-1979)" or "TENDER FOR TREASURY BONDS" should be printed at the bottom of the envelopes in which tenders are submitted.

The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to accept or reject any or all tenders, in whole or in part, and his action in any such respect shall be final. Subject to these reservations noncompetitive tenders for $500,000 or less for each issue of notes will be accepted in full at the average price of accepted competitive tenders and noncompetitive tenders for $250,000 or less for the bonds will be accepted in full at the same price as accepted competitive tenders. The prices may be 100.00, or more or less than 100.00.

Commercial banks, which for this purpose are defined as banks accepting demand deposits, may submit tenders for account of customers provided the names of the customers are set forth in such tenders. Others than commercial banks will not be permitted to submit tenders except for their own account.

Tenders will be received without deposit from commercial and other banks for their own account, Federally-insured savings and loan associations, States, political subdivisions or instrumentalities thereof, public pension and retirement and other public funds, international organizations in which the United States holds membership, foreign central banks and foreign States, dealers who make primary markets in Government securities and report daily to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York their positions with respect to Government securities and borrowings thereon, Federal Reserve Banks, and Government accounts. Tenders from others must be accompanied by payment of 5 percent of the face amount of securities applied for.

Payment for accepted tenders, including accrued interest from August 15 to November 15, 1973, on the bonds (\$18.75 per \$1,000), must be completed on or before Thursday, November 15, 1973, at the Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or at the Office of the Treasurer of the United States in cash, 4 $\frac{1}{8}$ % Treasury Bonds of 1973, which will be accepted at par, or other funds immediately available to the Treasury by that date. Where full payment is not completed in funds available by the payment date, the allotment will be canceled and the deposit with the tender up to 5 percent of the amount of securities allotted will be subject to forfeiture to the United States.

The Treasury will construe as timely payment any check drawn to the order of the Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasurer of the United States that is received at such bank or office by Tuesday, November 13, 1973, provided the check is drawn on a bank in the Federal Reserve District of the bank or office to which the tender is submitted. Other checks will constitute payment only if they are fully and finally collected by the payment date Thursday, November 15, 1973. Checks not so collected will subject the investor's deposit to forfeiture as set forth in the preceding paragraph. A check payable other than at a Federal Reserve Bank received on the payment date will not constitute immediately available funds on that date.

Commercial banks are prohibited from making unsecured loans, or loans collateralized in whole or in part by the securities bid for, to cover the deposits required to be paid when tenders are entered, and they will be required to make the usual certification to that effect. Other lenders are requested to refrain from making such loans.

All bidders are required to agree not to purchase or to sell, or to make any agreements with respect to the purchase or sale or other disposition of the securities bid for under this offering at a specific rate or price, until after the closing hour for the receipt of tenders for each particular issue.

As indicated in the above statement, the coupon rates for the two issues of notes will be announced on Monday, October 29. You may call this Bank (Telephone No. 212-732-5700, Ext. 143 or 652) on the afternoon of that date to ascertain those rates.

If there is any doubt that tenders sent by mail will reach this Bank or its Branch as required above, bidders should use other means of transmitting their tenders. The official offering circulars and tender forms will be mailed to you as soon as possible.

ALFRED HAYES,
President.
