SANCTIONS AGAINST THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF YUGOSLAVIA
(SERBIA AND MONTENEGRO)

President Bush has issued Executive Order No. 12810, following up on his Executive Order No. 12808 of Saturday, May 30, 1992. The new Executive Order, which became effective 12:20 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time, June 5, 1992, continues the blocking provisions of the previous Executive Order and must be implemented immediately by all financial institutions in the United States and all overseas branches of U.S. financial institutions. In outline, the sanctions program involving the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) now includes the following items of particular importance to banks:

(1) All Government assets blocked: The President’s May 30 blocking order is continued with identical scope. It blocks all property and interests in property of the Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro), and all property and interests in property in the name of the former Government of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia or of the former Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. “Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro)” means the government of the newly constituted Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, the Government of Serbia, and the Government of Montenegro, including any subdivisions thereof or local governments therein, their respective agencies, instrumentalities and controlled entities, and any persons acting or purporting to act for or on behalf of any of the above, and includes, but not by way of exclusion, the National Bank of Yugoslavia, the Yugoslav National Army, the Yugoslav Chamber of Economy, the National Bank of Serbia, the Serbian Chamber of Economy, the National Bank of Montenegro and the Montenegrin Chamber of Economy. Montenegrobanka, d.d. (formerly Investiciona Banka), Vojvodjanska Banka d.d., and Yugoslav Airlines have all been blocked. In addition, Jugobanka and Beogradska Banka are considered blocked pending further review by the U.S. Treasury Department. “Property” includes all bank accounts, securities, checks, drafts, and contracts. It also includes all funds transfers for which instructions have been received. Any bank in the U.S. or foreign branch of a U.S. bank with instructions to transfer funds in which there is a Yugoslav, Serbian, or Montenegrin government interest must place the funds into a blocked interest-bearing account on its own books, even where no such account previously existed. Credits to blocked accounts are permissible, but debits are prohibited.

(2) Imports prohibited: Imports of goods or services from the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) are prohibited as well as any dealing in property of Serbian or Montenegrin or “Yugoslav” origin exported from the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) after May 30, 1992. Any activity which promotes or is intended to promote such actions is also prohibited.

(3) Exports prohibited: Exports to the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro), or to any entity operated from the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro), or owned or controlled by the Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro), directly or indirectly, of any goods, technology or services are prohibited. Any activity which promotes or is intended to promote such exports is prohibited. U.S. persons may not deal in property intended for exportation from the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) to any country, or property intended for exportation to the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) from any country. The prohibition on dealing in property being exported to or from the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) does not apply to goods originating outside of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) being transshipped through that country.

(4) Transportation prohibited: Any transaction by a U.S. person, or involving the use of U.S. registered vessels and aircraft, relating to transportation to or from the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) is prohibited. The provision of transportation to or from the U.S. by any person in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) or any vessel or aircraft registered in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) is also prohibited. The sale in the U.S. of any transportation by air that includes any stop in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) is prohibited.

(5) No money to persons in Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro): Any commitment or transfer, direct or indirect, of funds or other financial or economic resources to or for the benefit of the Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) or to any other person in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) is prohibited. The performance by any U.S. person, including a bank, of any contract, including a financing contract, in support of an industrial, commercial, public utility, or governmental project in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) is also prohibited.
