COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS

January 4, 1937

Honorable Robert L. Owen
2400 Sixteenth Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C.

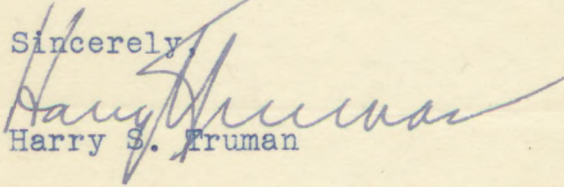

Dear Senator:

I want to apologize for the seeming delay in acknowledging receipt of your excellent book, "Stabilized Dollars - - Permanent Prosperity".

I am enclosing you a copy of letter which I sent you under date of January Eleventh, which evidently went astray.

The book was most interesting and I am happy that you remembered me with a copy.

Sincerely,

Harry S. Truman
