

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Hyde Park, New York
August 27, 1937

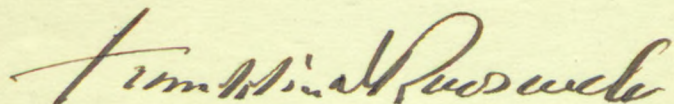

My dear Senator:

I appreciated much your letter of August twenty-third with its enclosed memorandum.

Although I have seen so little of you in the past year or two, I know that you understand how very much I appreciate your constant and loyal cooperation and the fine constructive suggestions you have made from time to time.

One of the drawbacks about being as busy as I am, is that it does not give me the opportunity for real heart-to-heart talks with my old and very worthwhile friends.

Cordially yours,

Honorable Robert L. Owen,
Southern Building,
Washington, D. C.
