

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 6, 1913

My dear Senator:

Thank you warmly for your generous words the other day about me in the Senate. Such attacks as those of Senator Cummins' are as ridiculous as they are ill-natured, but I shall feel perfectly safe against misrepresentations as long as I have such friends as yourself to defend me.

Cordially and sincerely yours,

Hon. Robert L. Owen,
United States Senate.
