Washington, D.C., den 3. November 1938.

My dear Senator Owen:-

Permit me to express my very sincere thanks for your kind letter of October the 28th. This letter together with its enclosures not only demonstrates the impartiality on international affairs, for which you have always been famous, but also recalls to me the many pleasant occasions meeting you during my previous term of office in Washington.

Yours very respectfully,

Honorable Robert L. Owen,
2400 Sixteenth Street N.W.,
Washington, D.C.
