MUSKOGEE, OKLAHOMA

June 18, 1939.

Dear Senator Owen:

I count it ~~an~~ a privilege to have received from you your learned depositions before the house committee on banking and currency. I am happy also to have "The senatorial career of Robert Latham Owen," a pleasure shared by Mrs. Foreman. Last evening I was showing them to the librarian of the public library at Pryor, Oklahoma, and suggested that they ought to have these works in that library. She will probably make the request of you. I am very grateful to you for giving them to me.

Last week I sent to the University of Oklahoma Press my manuscript on "A History of Oklahoma." This is not a school text book; I have intended it for the use and information of people who wish to read something of our history. I am greatly indebted to you for much of the information touching conditions in this country while you were agent at the Union Agency. I am sure that very few people now living have any idea of the abuse of tribal privileges to which you called attention throughout your administration, and which hastened tribal dissolution and statehood.

I trust this finds you and Mrs. Owen enjoying good health. Mrs. Foreman joins me in best wishes and kindest regards for both of you.

Very sincerely yours,

Grant Foreman
