

Washington, D.C., September 19, 1916.

Federal Reserve

Sir:

A joint examination of the Gold Settlement Fund and Federal Reserve Agents' Fund at Washington authorized by the respective chairmen of Conferences of Governors and Federal Reserve Agents was made this morning as of close of business September 18, 1916.

A statement of your account together with blank reconciliation and addressed envelope is inclosed herewith.

Please compare with your records and return reconciliation, properly signed, in the inclosed envelope at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,
