ADDRESS REPLY TO
FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

February 9, 1918.

Dear Sir:

Telegraph companies have called the attention of the Board to the fact that some Banks and Agents address telegrams "Willis, Secretary, Washington", or "Broughton, Washington", and that delivery would be expedited if the word "Treasury" was added to the address.

Reserve Board, Treasury, Washington, is suggested as a proper address for telegrams intended for the Board. Please use this code address for telegrams in the future except when they are intended as personal communications to individual members of the Board.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
